Next Monday, Oct. 20, at 8 p.m., the men will discuss labor saving devices for the farm. The advisory council will be elected and topics chosen for next year. However, there are still four more meetings in this year's series.

Interesting, appealing and appetizing recipes for casserole dishes were exchanged at the ladies' adult evening school Monday night. Mrs.
Spry announced that recipe folders will be handed out at a later meeting.

The next meeting will be a demonstration on "The use of the Ironer". Anyone interested is invited to attend.

Cup cakes baked by the freshman Home Economics girls and coffee were served at the close of the meeting.

The members of the Bedford Education association met for a plenary supper Thursday, Oct. 9 at Lake of Three Pines. This is a recently organized group of faculty members of the Bedford school system. The officers include C. B.
Hall, president; Mrs. Roy Rel-vic, president; Janet Stewart, secretary-treasurer; Ruth Alexander, reporter.

Judge C. J. Lewis Rules For Woodside

Judge Charles J. Lewis ruled Saturday that Dwight R. Woodside, Clearfield boy, was entitled to his state bonus, on an appeal to the district court, reversing a ruling by the World War II compensation board.

The court held that Woodside had established that he had been a legal resident of Taylor county, six months prior to his induction into the service.

James A. Lucas, attorney, represented Mr. Woodside. Herbert Hauge, special assistant attorney general, represented the World War II compensation board.

Peterman Tractor Co. Moved To Beard Bldg.

Peterman Tractor Company moved during the past few days from the Beck building on Court where they had been since in February, to the Beard garage building on Central, just south and across the street from the post office.

The new place of business for Elmo Peterman, proprietor, was vacated last summer by the Nesbitt Bottling Works, and more recently by Dr. Cunningham, osteopath.
Cunningham left Bedford recently to set up an office for the practice of osteopathy in Bussey, Iowa.

Diagonal Man In Jail Here

O. D. Mercer, 69, Diagonal, is held in the county jail here, charged with larceny of domestic animals.

C. H. Curry, Clearfield, filed charges against Mercer, alleging he took a couple of hogs from his farm and sold them in the Mount Ayr sale for $70.74 on Sept. 23.

Sheriff Harry Lucas picked up Mercer in Clarinda Wednesday of last week when he was released from a 15-day stay in the county jail on a bad check charge.

GRASS FIRE AT FISHERS

A runaway grass fire back of the Archie Fisher residence just west of the school grounds, brought out the fire fighters and two trucks Saturday afternoon. No damage done.

...ivestock. Last year severally applicants purchased foundation herds of Angus and Hereford beef cattle.
Some started in dairy cattle. Irre-gardless of breed or type of livestock, the herd sire is very important.

The moveable hog house is almost a must in order to get small pigs away from diseased and dirty lots. To hold down the cost of feed, some have established Ladline clover for hog pasture.

The FHA is willing to make loans to eligible applicants who have the desire to follow improved practices. All applications are reviewed by the county committee consisting of Frank Sweeney of Conway, Paul Thompson of Bedford, Merle Harland of Gravitly, Office day at Bedford Wednesday, 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., office above State Savings bank.

Tag Day Winners Get Show Passes

Volunteers of America sold tags in Bedford Oct. 11 with satisfactory results. Youngsters winning prizes for selling tags were Dorothy Huss, Twyla Watkins, Sharon Lyons, Frank We-more and Kay Clark. The prizes were theatre tickets, given by Mrs. Doris Young of the Rialto.

Van Ness Killed In Car Accident

Marlyn Van Ness, 25, whose parents live seven miles northeast of New Market, was killed Saturday night when the truck which he was driving went out of control on highway 3 near Hartline, Neb. The machine rolled over several times and landed on top of its driver, who had been thrown from the cab. Van Ness was a truck driver for a Lincoln firm.

Funeral services were held in Shenandoah Tuesday afternoon and burial was in Rose Hill cemetery there.

Christianson Home From Sweden Trip

J. F. Christianson of Sharpsburg is home from a 41-day plane trip to the country of his birth, Sweden.
It was the first time he had been back to Sweden in 52 years, and he noticed many changes in the country in that time. While there he visited a brother, $6, and a sister, $1, as well as with other relatives.
Mr. Christianson first came to the states in 1888, when he was 18 years of age, and he had made one visit back before this trip, going by boat at that time.
