

Standard Form For Members of the Legislature

Name of Representative Senator Cromwell,
Frederick P. - Represented Des Moines County, Iowa

1. Birthday and place 21. Aug 1905 Marshall County, Illinois

2. Marriage (s) date place
Esther Gray 29 Dec 1938 Washington, Iowa

3. Significant events for example:

A. Business Practiced law in Burlington, Iowa more than 40 years;
he was a member of both the Des Moines County and Iowa Bar Association

B. Civic responsibilities Mason; Burlington

C. Profession Lawyer

4. Church membership Episcopal

5. Sessions served 48th, 49th, 50th, 51st General Assemblies 1939, 1941, 1943, 1945

6. Public Offices

A. Local _____

B. State _____

C. National _____

7. Death 2 July 1992 Minneapolis, Minnesota

8. Children Caroline (Mrs. Carlson); Thomas

9. Names of parents Edward G. and Grace (Packell) Cromwell

10. Education

*He attended Mercersburg Academy,
Mercersburg, Pennsylvania, graduating 1924*

11. Degrees

He earned a B.S. degree from the University of Illinois in Mechanical Engineering 1930; Law degree from George Washington University, Washington, D.C. 1933

12. Other applicable information

*Republican
- He began practicing law at Burlington, Iowa in 1933*

that ramp will be built for the new bridge.

Beasley Corp. continued stringing cables that support the decking.

Johnson Brothers Corp. completed its work on the east deck.

Two lanes of eastbound and one lane of westbound traffic on the $42 million bridge are to open by June 1993 with all five lanes open by June 1994.

Fourth picnic

ly swing.

Gov. Jim Martin, a Republican who urged the president to end the Fourth of July in with called it a community a stood for All American, mily, traditional values."

Earlier, Bush got to start the psi 400 race at the Daytona ternational Speedway and ive around the steeply banked ick in a pace car with two of 3 grandsons. He paid tribute Richard Petty, the stock car end, racing for the last time Daytona.

"It's been a great big high of day for me here and this one a picture postcard holiday ting. You've got it all with e Little League and the soft- ll games and the wheelbarrow es and the parade down Main eet," said Bush.

"Not every place in America like these wonderful towns, t its values can and should " id Bush, who was joined Faith by his wife Barbara. he values that you hold dear e the values that hold our tire country together.

Burlington Medical Center.

Born Nov. 10, 1905, in Louisa County, she was the daughter of Charles and Sarah Swise Atherton. She was married to the late Florian Bergs.

Mrs. Bergs was a homemaker and of the Christian faith.

She is survived by nieces and nephews.

Besides her husband, she was preceded in death by her parents, four brothers and two sisters.

A graveside service for Mrs. Bergs will be at 1 p.m. Wednesday in Memorial Park Cemetery.

Frederick Cromwell

Frederick P. Cromwell, 87, of Minneapolis died after an extended illness July 2, 1992, at the Hillcrest Nursing Home in Minneapolis.

Born in 1905 in Henry, Ill., he was the son of E.G. Cromwell and Grace Paskell.

Mr. Cromwell practiced law for more than 40 years in Burlington. He also served several sessions in the Iowa Senate and was an active member of the Republican party.

Survivors include his wife Esther Hay Cromwell; one daughter, Caroline Carlson; one son Tom Cromwell; and five grandchildren.

A private family service was in Minneapolis. Memorials may be sent to the Minneapolis Cancer Society.

Lovenia Duncan

Lovenia B. Duncan, 64, of Bonaparte, died at midnight Friday, July 3, 1992, at the University of Iowa Hospitals in Iowa City.

Born Feb. 29, 1928, in Mount Zion, she was the daughter of Thomas and Madeline McCarty. On Dec. 30, 1946, she married Robert J. Duncan in Keosauqua.

Mrs. Duncan lived in Bonaparte for 46 years.

Survivors include her husband; a son, Terry Duncan of Brooklyn, Iowa; three grand-

1992, at Burlington Me Center.

Born March 12, 1907, in Moines County, she was the daughter of Fred Austin and Berth Isa Bumgardner Woodward. On Feb. 25, 1933, she married Harold Lenihan in Lancaster, Mo.

Mrs. Lenihan was a retired Burlington school teacher.

She was a member of the Iowa State Education Association, the National Retired Teachers Association, RSVP at Grace United Methodist Church.

Survivors include her husband; a daughter, Beverly Thompson of Muscatine; a son Larry Lenihan of Myrtle Point Ore.; seven grandchildren; 1 great-grandchildren, and several nieces and nephews.

The family will receive friends from 7 to 8:30 p.m. Sunday at Prugh's Funeral Home.

The funeral for Mrs. Lenihan will be at 10:30 a.m. Monday at Prugh's Chapel, with the Rev. Milton Geisler officiating. Burial will be in Aspen Grove Cemetery.

Walter Barton

Walter F. Barton, 76, of 170 S. Central Ave. died at 1:15 a.m. Friday, July 3, 1992, at Burlington Medical Center.

Born Dec. 28, 1915, in Mount Pleasant, he was the son of Ernest and May Freeman Barton. On May 26, 1972, he married Vera Lefler in Macomb, Ill.

Mr. Barton was a purchasing agent at A.Y. McDonald Co. for 16 years. He also worked at Sheaffer Pen Co. in Fort Madison. He was graduated from Salem High School and attended Iowa Wesleyan College. During World War II he served in an Army field artillery unit. He attended First United Methodist Church and was a member of Patriot Lode 650 A.F. & A.M. and the American Legion.

Mr. Barton was preceded by his wife.

He was preceded in