Life Outlined

Clifford Melvin Strawman was born on June 3, 1889 in Jackson township, Jones county, to David Melvin and Eleanor Soper Strawman.

In 1906 he graduated from Anamosa high school and that fall he entered Cornell college from which he received a Bachelor of Arts degree in 1910. He later spent two years at the University of Chicago, transferring to Columbia university where he earned a degree in law in 1915.

they will be expected to reimburse the state for the costs of their care, and must resume support of their families.

"While this program represents a real opportunity for the offender," Wilson said, "it also represents an opportunity to participate actively in the rehabilitation of the offender, and to make a direct and real contribution to the reduction of crime rates."

Step Taken

Joseph Coughlin, director of corrections, Des Moines, pointed out that the work release program is one step in a more general plan to develop a correctional system in Iowa which will permit offenders to return to the community by degrees.

"Currently in Iowa we have virtually no alternative to maximum security confinement, followed by direct release to the community," he explained.

Graduates Told

"Coupling the work release program with the replacement of the maximum security reformatory at Anamosa with a medium and minimum security unit will give us a highly graduated in marriage to Blanche Geneva Mason in Valley City, N. Dak. They made their home on a wheat ranch in Montana where Mr. Strawman helped to organize and was the manager of the Montana Wheat Growers association. He later became the manager of the American Wheat Growers association with headquarters in Minneapolis. Following this period he was attorney for the Illinois Agricultural association.

After the death of his father, Mr. Strawman returned with his family, to take over the family farms east of Anamosa where he continued to make his home.

Always interested in public affairs he was elected to the Iowa legislature as a representative from Jones county in 1944 where he served with distinction until 1954. During his tenure in the legislature he was instrumental in securing appropriations for the construction of the Medical Research center at the University of Iowa and for major improvements at the University hospitals. In 1954 Governor William S. Beardsley appointed him to a six year term on the State Board of Regents. He was active on the board from 1955 through 1960.

He was a member of the Tau Kappa Alpha, Delta Chi, and Acacia fraternities at Columbia university. He was admitted to the bar in Iowa and was a member of the Iowa Bar association. Mr. Strawman was a member of the Anamosa Methodist church, Anamosa lodge No. 46 A.F. & A.M. and Anamosa Rotary club.

STATE OF IOWA
Des Moines

In August 1913, he married Clara Hotz, Lone Tree, Iowa. To this union were born three sons.

Mr. Stanek farmed until his retirement in 1947. After retiring, Mr. Stanek owned and operated the Moorland and Barnum Telephone Company for a number of years. He also owned the Moorland Implement Company. Mr. Stanek was a member of the Western Bohemian Fraternal Association, Loyal Order of Moose and the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks.

Mr. Stanek, a Democrat, served in the House of Representatives in the Forty-ninth session of the General Assembly.

Mr. Stanek passed away on June 8, 1968. He is survived by his wife, Clara, and three sons, Harry H. of Moorland, Richard R. of Callender, and Floyd J. of Wayne, Pennsylvania; six grandchildren and seven great grandchildren; a brother, Fred, Fort Dodge; and a sister, Mrs. Charles Hotz, Lone Tree.

Therefore, Be It Resolved by the House of Representatives of the Sixty-third General Assembly of Iowa: That in the passing of the Honorable James F. Stanek, the state has lost an honored citizen and a faithful and useful public servant, and the House by this resolution would express its appreciation of his service, and tender its sympathy to the members of his family.

Be It Further Resolved: That a copy of this resolution be spread upon the Journal of the House, and that the Chief Clerk be directed to forward an enrolled copy to the family of the deceased.
