Fines Instead Of Warnings To Shoplifters

A "get-tough" policy on shoplifters has been enacted at Gibson's Discount store recently. According to Eddie Cochran, assistant manager, the policy is paying off with 16 shoplifters being caught in the last 8-day period.

Saturday, a woman and three children were apprehended in the store, all with merchandise on their persons. The 12-year-old boy had two bottles of men's after shave in his rear pockets. One girl, 13, had false eye lashes, eye make-up and other beauty products in her purse. The third child, a 10-year-old girl, had a flour sifter, nail clippers, pencil sharpener and eye make-up. The mother had men's hair conditioner, hair dressing, a bottle of Geritol and a bar of soap in her purse. The woman's husband was waiting outside in a car, according to Cochran.

Charges were pressed and the woman was fined. Juvenile reports were filed on the children.

Cochran stated, "Up until recently, we have let most shoplifters off with a warning. Now we plan to file charges on all we catch."
