V. B. Gridders Complete First Week's Practice

The Van Buren Community school football team in its first week of practice which has been a week of definite accomplishment, according to Coach Robert Snow. "There are so many drawbacks in starting a green team from scratch but it is very awarding to see definite improvement each day."

Snow said the boys have a game two weeks from Saturday and they are still more than that away as far as fundamentals are concerned. "We do know one thing and that is that they will be in good sound condition for their first game," he added.

The squad is now down to 33 players with some of the boys getting the feel of this contact with some others not quite sure of it yet. There appears to be a lot of spirit among the players and more so as the days come. The players are beginning to realize the importance of good hard conditioning.

Definite positions are being assigned to some of the players and by next week a story including all the names of the boys and their probable positions, weights, etc will be forthcoming.

Penny Downard spent a few days last week in Milton with her grandmother, Mrs. Wilma Atkins and her aunt, Mrs. John Rhoten.
