Fred L. Johnson was educator for 45 years

Death came Wednesday, Nov. 25, to Fred L. Johnson, prominent Fremont County educator and former Iowa state representative. He was 75 years old.

Born in Lincoln, Nebr., he spent his entire life in this area except for short teaching assignments at Lincoln and in Montana.

In addition to teaching and principal duties in the Hamburg school system for almost 25 years, he also taught at Randolph and Sidney, and was superintendent at Riverton five years. In all, his career in education spanned 45 years.

His deep interest in politics led to his election to the Iowa House of Representatives for two terms, until failing health forced his retirement from public life in 1959.

He graduated from the U. of Iowa in 1911 with a B. A. degree, and was granted a Master's Degree from the U. of Nebraska in 1939. His thesis was instrumental in bringing about reciprocity laws which allow Nebraska and Missouri students living close to Iowa schools to attend them at the same rate as Iowa students.

He was a past secretary of the Hamburg Kiwanis Club, was a member of IOOF 197; AF&AM 253; and RAM 76.

Burial was in Hamburg Cemetery following 2:00 p. m. services at the Johnson Funeral Home Friday, Nov. 27.

Survivors include his wife Grace, and four children: Frederic of Hamburg; James of Tabor; Gerald of Flint, Mich.; and Mrs. Elizabeth Smith of Maryville, Mo. Two children and Mrs. Robert Glenn of Tarkio and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Foster of Nebraska City, in addition to 12 grandchildren.

Pleads guilty

Gerald Hickman of Shenandoah appeared in Fremont District court Nov. 23 before Judge Leroy Johnson, and entered his plea of guilty to OMVI and was sentenced to 50 days in the County Jail.

Hansen dinner Monday night

Congressman-elect John Hansen will speak at a "get acquainted" dinner here Monday night, says Harry Somermey-er, Fremont County Democratic chairman. The 7:00 buffet will be held at the American Legion Club, followed by a short talk by Mr. Hansen.

Tickets are still available at the office of Martin and Wenger.

Thanksgiving Day guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs.
 Walt Glenn and children were Mrs. Edward Nocton and three children and Mrs. Robert Glenn of Tarkio and Mr. and
 Mrs. Harold Foster of Nebraska City.

...not counted.
 Brown alleges that in Madison Township, his home township, judges and clerks on the receiving and counting boards were seated in error.

In addition, the petition charges that the official vote canvass by the Fremont County board of supervisors was illegal in that counting of the votes was started prior to the 12 o'clock noon time specified by law.

Mr. Scoles and Mr. Brown and their attorneys will now each select one judge. Normally these two, along with the chairman of the board of supervisors, comprise the contest board. However, since the board chairman is Mr. Scoles, the next supervisor with most experience, Steve Scott, will serve on the contest board.

Brown has selected Robert Cloepfil as his judge, and Scoles has picked Ed Eaton of Sidney.

It is thought now that counting of the ballots will get underway Friday, Dec. 11, and should not take more than a day.

Only that portion of the ballot involved in the contest will be checked, and about a thousand ballots are involved. The unusual number of straight tickets cast with a "scratch" vote here and there for individual candidates of the other party will probably figure prominently in the re-count.

The ballots have not been opened since they were placed in envelopes and sealed by the various counting boards immediately after counting the night of Nov. 3. They now rest in the vault of the county auditor. The official vote canvass of Nov. 9 re-counted only the official tally on the outside of the envelopes. No one has seen the actual ballots since they were counted by the individual boards.

Correction

Whoops, don't bake it that way.
 The recipe for last week, Applesauce Cake, should have two teaspoons soda in 1/4 cup hot water added after the flour and should only have one teaspoon vanilla. We're sorry.
