Frank Hoxie Dies At Age 79

Frank Morris Hoxie, 79, died August 2 at Garden View Care Center, Shenandoah.

Funeral services are pending with Jennings Chapel in charge of the arrangements. Burial will be at Rose Hill Cemetery.

Surviving are his wife, Carrie of Shenandoah; two sons, Maurice of Shenandoah and Wayne of Imogene; and four grandchildren, Judy and Kent Hoxie, Shenandoah, and Scott and Bruce Hoxie, Imogene. Also surviving are two brothers, James H. Hoxie, Boise, Idaho and Ralph Hoxie of Tabor and two sisters, Mrs. Clifford (Mary) Allely and Mrs. Glenn (Lucille) Carlson, both of Essex.

He was preceded in death by his parents and one sister.

He was a member of the United Methodist Church, Tri-centum Lodge and Kiwanis. He was state senator from 1954 to 1962, treasurer of the Iowa and American Soybean Association, former member of the Fremont County Farm Bureau where he was president and held other offices, former Walnut Township trustee, and was president of Eisenhower's Highway Safety Council.

He received the Shelly Oil Company

award in 1950 for achievements in agriculture, was the chairman of the bond issue for the Shenandoah High School building, former chairman of the board of trustees of the Methodist Church, held numerous church offices and was Sunday school teacher for the high school class at the Methodist Church. He also received the Billion Dollar Bean award in 1972 for the State of Iowa and the Shenandoah Education Association Outstanding Service award in 1969, and received the Shenandoah Lions Club Outstanding Citizen award in 1966.

OBITUARY

ARTHER PAUL SALSTRAND

Arthur Paul Salstrand, son of Lemus and Emily Swanson Salstrand was born at Shenandoah Sept. 13, 1895. He was one of a family of 11 children.

The early years of his life were spent in Shenandsoh and when a young boy the family moved to a farm northeast of Essex. He later moved to Omaha where he lived several years prior to his moving to California where he lived at Oakland the remainder of his life. While living in Omaha he was a street car conductor.

During World War I he served overseas in the Army.

Preceding him in death were his Esther, Mrs. George Atkinson of McPherson, Kan.; Clara, Mrs. Earl Lundgren of Ione, Calif.; Ruby, Mrs. Harlan Drake of Riverside, Calif. and Ruth, Mrs. James Raby of Seattle, Wash. Also surviving are three grandchildren, a number of nieces, nephews and other relatives.

He died suddenly from a heart attack at his home Tuesday morning July 27. He was 80.

Graveside services were held at 10:30 a.m. Saturday, July 31, at the Essex Cemetery. The Rev. Dale Sanders, pastor of the Evangelical Covenant Church, Essex officiated.
