Wesley Turner

Turner will present a special program on Saturday evening at 7:30 p.m. on "Living a Dedicated Life". It will consist of 80 colored slides taken by Turner and his wife on visits to Israel in 1970 and 1972. Turner explained that the program is not a travelogue. It is a graphic portrayal of the life of Jesus Christ and how his teachings have affected our lives. Floyd Whitmer, presiding overseer, said that the climax of the week's activity will come at 9:30 a.m. Sunday when Turner will deliver the talk "Into the New Order Under Christ's Leadership". All meetings are open to the general public and are held at the Kingdom Hall located at 202 SW 3rd Street, Gilmore City.

Geriatrics Course Postponed At Manor

Mrs. Karen Lalone, R. N., Health Services Supervisor at the Pocahontas Manor announced this week that a 60-hour geriatric nurse aide and orderly course planned to start January 13, has been postponed until January 20 due to the recent outbreak of flu in the community. The new schedule calls for the course to start on January 20 and run through January 24 and then start again on January 27 and run through January 8:00 a.m. until 2:00 p.m. Anyone interested in the course is urged to contact Mrs. Lalone at the manor for details.

Change Schedule To Start Class

Due to conflict with the prenatal class which was scheduled to begin January 13, the geriatric course will be started until January 20. The first in the series of sessions will be held on January 16. This is followed by a session on January 23 and a final one in this series on January 30. Mrs. M. Peterson will be the instructor for the class. The film, "A Film About Aging" will be shown during the first session. This is the first of a series of recently purchased films at the Pocahontas Hospital for use in inservice prenatal classes. Expectant parents are invited to come.
