

Standard Form For Members of the Legislature

Name of Representative Baker, Donald Senator _____

Representative Boone County, Iowa

1. Birthday and place 9 Nov 1930 Boone, Iowa

2. Marriage (s) date place

Margaret Nowels

3. Significant events for example:

A. Business _____

B. Civic responsibilities _____

C. Profession Regional manager with Bell Telephone Company

4. Church membership _____

5. Sessions served 61st, 62nd, 63rd General Assembly 1965, 1967, 1969-1970

6. Public Offices

A. Local _____

B. State _____

C. National _____

7. Death 22 June 2001 Johnston, Iowa; cremated

8. Children Becky (Mrs. Stanstrom); a son preceded his father in death

9. Names of parents _____

10. Education Educated in the Boone, Iowa public schools

11. Degrees Attended Boone Junior College, Boone, Iowa

12. Other applicable information Democrat

Military service - Korean War - U. S. Air Force

Deaths

BAKER

Donald Baker, 70, Ankeny, died June 22, 2001; of melanoma cancer at Mercy Hospice in Johnston.

Funeral services were at 1:30 p.m. today at Ankeny Funeral Home in Ankeny.

Cremation was to follow the funeral service.

Mr. Baker was born in Boone and graduated from Bonne High School and attended Junior College in Boone. He was in the Air Force during the Korean Conflict. He retired from Bell Telephone as a regional manager, 15 years in Ankeny, prior to his retirement. He was active in civic affairs for many years and served three terms in the Iowa Legislature from Boone County as a state representative from 1964-1970.

He was preceded in death by a son.

His survivors include his wife, Margaret (Nowels) Baker; a daughter, Becky Stenstrom of Des Moines; a daughter-in-law, Kate Baker of Iowa City; two sisters, Eve Wisecup of Ankeny and Ruth O'Brien of Junction City, Kan.; and two grandchildren, Sarah and Joe Baker of Iowa City.

Memorials may be donated to the Mercy Hospice or the American Cancer Society.

Ankeny Funeral Home was in charge of the arrangements.

ERICKSON

Lucille Erickson, 91, formerly of Indianola and currently of the Eastern Star Masonic Home in Boone, died June 21, 2001, at the Boone County Hospital. Arrangements are incomplete at this time. Stark-Molin

Sheriff's Report

Friday morning, Andrew L. Smith, 18, lost control of the vehicle he was driving on U.S. Highway 30 southwest of Ames. A vehicle veered into his lane and was not located after the accident. Smith's vehicle sustained $2,500 in damages.

Saturday morning, Jason Simpson, 21, Ogden, reported his truck had been vandalized.

Saturday morning, Denise McIllece, 49, Keota, was arrested for drunken driving in Ogden.

Saturday afternoon, Robert E. Breuklander, 40, Ottumwa was arrested for public intoxication on U.S. Highway 30.

Saturday night, Rachel J. Christensen, 16, Ogden, lost control of the vehicle she was driving on 250th Street south of Ogden, and went into the ditch. Christensen received minor injuries and received treatment at the Boone County Hospital. Her vehicle sustained $3,500 in damages.

Accidents

Friday morning, Joseph C. Rogers, 32, 1217 W. Eighth St., lost control of the vehicle he was driving and struck a tree in the 400 Block of Park Avenue. His vehicle sustained $3,000 in damages.

sought

ld have affected Hess' case use the landlord's remarks aren't gender-related. City officials have acknowledged, however, that they mishandled the file. We should never have accepted original" tape, Jones said. "That y was reiterated so people ld know that that is not ptable practice."

ca' attorneys said the overall it Des Moines investiga- s roughly equal those by state stigators. Consolidation might ight not make sense, they said. hat's a reasonable argument ong as the state would appro- te the extra money to run the ce," said lawyer James nger.

t would sure seem to make e to have all that expertise in place."

ick Autry, a lawyer for the a Civil Rights Commission, said e investigators need all the local they can get.

n general, it's my impression it's quite useful for us to have l agencies investigating those s," Autry said. "If we had to dle those as well, it would ease delays."

es Moines city attorneys argue state law would prohibit the from eliminating its agency's tory functions.

est Des Moines city lawyers e read the law differently, ever. That city's 2-year-old nan Rights Commission has used on building resources for local library, creating pam- ts and designing educational

DONALD BAKER

Ankeny

Donald E. Baker, 70, of the 600 block of Southeast Fifth Street, Ankeny, died of cancer Friday at Mercy Hospice in Johnston. Services will be at 1:30 p.m. Monday at Ankeny Funeral Home. Cremation will follow services.

Mr. Baker was born in Boone and had lived in Ankeny 30 years. He was a retired regional manager with Bell Telephone Co. and had served three terms as a state representative in the Iowa Legislature for Boone County. He was an Air Force veteran of the Korean War and enjoyed gardening and antiques.

He is survived by his wife, Margaret; a daughter, Becky Stenstrom of Des Moines; two sisters, Eve Wisecup of Ankeny and Ruth O'Brien of Junction City, Kan.; and two grandchildren.

Friends may call from 12:30 p.m. to the time of services Monday at the funeral home. Memorial contributions may be made to Mercy Hospice in Johnston or the American Cancer Society.

DOROTHY McCORD

Pleasant Hill

Dorothy Emma McCord, 79, of the 4300 block of Parkridge Avenue, Pleasant Hill, died of cancer Thursday at Hospice Kavanagh House. The body was cremated, and memorial services will be at 10:30 a.m. Tuesday at Palmer Funeral Chapel in Rockwell City. Burial of the cremains will be at Rosehill Cemetery there.

Mrs. McCord was born in Belmont and lived in Webster City, Iowa Falls and Clear Lake before moving to Pleasant Hill in 1999. She was a drugstore

RICHARD OLIVER

Des Moines

Richard Oliver, 80, of the 600 block of Seneca Avenue died of a heart ailment Friday at home. Services will be at 2 p.m. Monday at Hamilton's Near Highland Memory Gardens Funeral Home, with burial at Highland Memory Gardens Cemetery.

Mr. Oliver was born in Colfax and had lived in Missouri before moving to Des Moines in 1956. He was a retired custodian with the Des Moines school system and a Navy veteran of World War II and had served in the submarine corps. He enjoyed fishing and camping.

He is survived by his wife, Velma; two sons, James and Stephen, and a daughter, Donna Musso, all of Des Moines; two sisters, Kay Windsor of Sacramento, Calif., and Gerrie Pavon of Santa Rosa, Calif.; four grandchildren; and six great-grandchildren.

The family will receive friends from 6 to 8 p.m. today at the funeral home. Memorial contributions may be made to the American Diabetes Association.

LULA HART

Ankeny

Lula V. Hart, 90, of the 700 block of Northeast Fifth Street, Ankeny, died of complications of a stroke Friday at Kavanagh House on Grand in West Des Moines. The body was donated to Des Moines University—Osteopathic Medical Center, and memorial services will be at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday at Ankeny Funeral Home.

Mrs. Hart was born in Rockingham, N.C., and had lived in New York City, Abilene and Ankeny before moving to Ankeny in 1984. She was a homemaker and an avid walker.

Source: Iowa Territorial and State Legislators Collection, Webster City, Iowa Falls and Clear Lake before moving to Pleasant Hill in 1999. She was a drugstore and staff at the State Historical Society of Iowa Library, Des Moines, Iowa.