OBITUARIES

LUCAS J. DE KOSTER

Mr. Lucas J. De Koster, 81, of Hull, passed away Wednesday, February 23, at his residence.

Memorial services were held on Monday, February 28, at the American Reformed Church in Hull. The Rev. Steven Bierly officiated. Interment will be at Hope Cemetery in Hull, at a later date under the direction of the Oolman Funeral Home in Hull.

Lucas James was born June 18, 1918, in Hull, the son of John and Sarah Katherine (Poppen) De Koster. He was raised in Hull. He attended Kansas State College and Iowa State College, graduating with a degree in mechanical engineering. On Dec. 30, 1942, he married Dorothea LaVonne Hymans in Hull.

After graduating from Iowa State, Lucas was employed in the aeronautical industry in New Jersey, Virginia, and Ohio. While in Ohio, he attended Cleveland Marshall Law School and received a Doctor of Laws degree, cum laude. He then practiced patent law in Cleveland.

In the early 1950s Mr. and Mrs. De Koster returned to Hull, where Lucas first assisted his father in the insurance business. After being admitted to the Iowa Bar in June of 1952, he practiced general and patent law, and continued the ownership and operation of the De Koster Insurance Agency until his death.

Mr. De Koster was devoted to his family and church and gave many years of dedicated service to his community, state and nation. He was an active member of the American Reformed Church and a founding member of the Hull Public Library. He represented northwest Iowa in the Iowa Senate from 1965-1983, and served on the Iowa State Board of Public Instruction for six years. In addition, he served as a loyal and valued member of numerous civic, community, and state organizations.

Survivors include his wife; five children and their spouses, Sarah K. and Dr. Randall C. Hart, of Oskaloosa; The Rev. Jacqueline A. and Frank D. Thomas, of St. Joseph, Mo.; John G. and Glenda De Koster, of Hull; Claire E. and Paul W. Gillaspey, of Sioux Falls, S.D.; and Mary D. and Philip A. Ness, of Albert Lea, Minn.; twelve grandchildren, Nathan, Cynthia, and Valerie Hart; James, Anne, and Rachel Thomas; Lucas and Philip De Koster; Elizabeth and Emily Gillaspey; and Sondra and Alysia Ness; and four sisters, Neeltje-Anne De Koster, of Cleveland; Judith Englert and Patricia Echeiberger, both of Grand Prairie, Texas; and Theodora Jones, of Omaha, Neb.

Memorials may be directed to the Friends of the Hull Public Library and the American Reformed Church Building Fund.
