THE HISTORY OF WARREN COUNTY, IOWA

*Three rivers flow through lands of farms and woods:
North River, Middle River,
South River;
Unpretentiously they take their separate ways
Before they join the current of the wide Des Moines.
Though now the realm claims
dignity as "Warren County"
Centered round the square of Indianola where its
Court House stands,
Its rolling hills and streams were always
"The Three River Country"
to the pioneers.*

Three Rivers Land"

exercises of the day.

In the midst of the people sat Joseph Michael, cool, calm and happy, bearing the weight of one hundred years wonderfully well.

The celebration commenced by song and a prayer service, just like an old fashioned camp meeting, led by Rev. Farley of Milo. Immediately afterward Rev. John Goode delivered an excellent discourse, alluding to many scenes which came before to his personal knowledge, as he has been acquainted with "Father" Michael for fifty years.

At noon the people gathered together in groups and partook of a basket dinner in the grove and renewed old acquaintances. After dinner the audience was called together by song and prayer and "Father" Michael was presented with a Bible as a token of esteem and warm friendship on the part of the citizens of Liberty Twp.

Joseph Mosher was called upon and in a lucid manner related his acquaintances of over fifty years with "Father" Michael, and the early scenes of a pioneer life. He carried us back to the log school house and the puncheon floor.

At three P.M. Rev. Martin, of Indianola, preached a sermon using the text: 'How old art thou?' He handled it in his usual style, giving thought and reason in his masterly way, to the vast assemblage and exhorted them to live lives of sobriety and usefulness and by so doing make the world better as "Brother" Michael has by living in it. It was noted that looking into the face of this "grand old man" one realized that his ways were ways of pleasantness and his paths were paths of peace.

MICHAEL, JOSEPH

F687

Joseph Michael was of German parentage, being the fourth son of William and Barbara Michael, who were born and raised in Germany. His parents emigrated to Buckingham Co., VA, where Joseph was born August 19, 1805. The family moved to Ross Co., OH, when Joseph was eight years old. On June 19, 1827 Joseph was married to Elizabeth Dougherty by Esquire Joseph Cooley in Ross Co. In the fall of 1853, Joseph and Elizabeth Michael, with their family, moved to Warren Co., IA. In the spring of 1854 they settled in the SE ¼ sec. 15 Liberty Twp. where he built a shop on his farm and worked for several years at the blacksmith trade in connection with his work on the farm. On retiring from the farm he bought a home in Liberty Center where his wife died December 28, 1882. The Michaels were active in the Liberty Center M.E. Church where he was the first class leader, his funeral was the first held after the church was enlarged.

There were twelve children born to Mr. and Mrs. Michael, consisting of seven sons and five daughters: John D., William, Joseph and David (twins), Henry H., Rufus, and James Curtis, daughters Cathrine, Julia Ann (Michael) Turner, Barbara (Michael) Woodyard, Clarissa C. Michael, and Hulda Jane (Michael) Cleveland.

Joseph was made a Mason in Albany, OH in August 1853. He had been a Mason over 50 years and at the time of his death was a member of Sena Lodge No. 344, A.F.&A.M. at Liberty Center. He died November 22, 1906, at the age of 101 years 3 months 3 days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Turner, his son-in-law and daughter, in Sec 30 of Belmont Twp. After a short prayer service at the Turner home on Sunday morning Nov. 25th the Masonic escort left with the body to take it to Liberty Center. His funeral services were held at the M.E. Church conducted by Rev. Johnston pastor of the M.E. Church in Milo. His remains were taken to the I.O.O.F. Cemetery, west of Liberty Center and interred with Masonic honors. His wife Elizabeth and son David are buried next to him.

When Joseph was quite old he still loved to walk and to hunt and on one occasion he killed a squirrel with a rock. At the age of ninety-eight Joseph walked from the home of his daughter Mrs. Julia Ann Turner, to Milo, a distance of nearly six miles, in half a day, an illustration of his vigor. On his last few hunting trips, his daughter Barbara would have to cock the gun, aim it and then he would squeeze the trigger.

MICHAEL, LUCILLE

F688

Mildred Lucille Michael was born November 12, 1928, Wright, IA, the daughter of William and Daisy Lathrop, who came to Warren Co., in 1941, purchasing a farm in the Center Chapel neighborhood.

She graduated from high school at St. Marys, IA. in 1946. She married Norval J. Michael, a native of Minnesota, in March, 1947. They lived near Waterville, MN. until September of that year, and then moved back to Warren Co. where they resided until 1980. At that time they then moved to Des Moines.

They have a family of five children; Larry R. of Cheyenne, WY., B. Diane Sweeden, of Burlington, IA., W. Eugene ("Gene"), Martensdale, IA. and Marijane L. of Dallas, TX.

MIDDLESWART,

JAMES I.

F689

James I. (Jim) Middleswart, the oldest of six children (five boys and one girl) born to David A. and Eva Morgan Middleswart of White Oak Twp., was born there April 8, 1912. Jim's father David and grandfather William A. Middleswart were also life time residents of White Oak Twp. and his youngest brother Martin Luther resides on the old family farm which had been designated a "Century Farm." Jim's great grandfather James Martin migrated from Brown Co., OH, in about 1856 and is buried at Shaver Cemetery. He lived and farmed on part of the Hooper Area, adjacent to Ahquabi State Park in the years prior to 1872.

Dave and Eva were married in 1911, and after farming four years with his father

James I. Middleswart

William, moved to Guthrie County to help grandfather Morgan, since both of his sons were in the armed services during World War I. After the war was over they came back to Warren Co. and later bought part of the parental William Middleswart farm where they remained until retirement and sale of the farm to son Luther.

Jim and Geraldine Denly of Truro were married June 10, 1936. They farmed on two different farms in Social Plains School area until 1941. During this time two children were born: Phyllis Ann in February 1938 and LaVerne David on April 1939. In 1941 they purchased a farm eight miles N.W. of Indianola in Mt. Hope Community, known as the Gavin farm. In August 1946 another daughter came: Irene Marie. Jim and Geraldine spent the early years on their new farm combatting the problems of World War 2 and completely building a set of new farm buildings, while paying for their 160 acre farm.

During this time they both became avid conservationists, and built some of the first terraces in West Lincoln Twp. In 1951 they purchased 80 acres across the road, from Philip Mahr, which was part of the Thomas Hansell estate. The farm was plaqued and named "Just-A-Farm" but to the family it is a great deal more than that. Through the conservation practiced on the farm, numerous conservation awards were made including "Outstanding Conservation Farm" in Warren County, and a "Sweepstakes" award over ten counties in 1966, also the Goodyear award that year and later an "Outstanding Conservation Award" by WMT, Cedar Rapids and Waterloo Radio Station.

Jim was President of Warren County Farm Bureau as well as secretary, for two terms each. His grandfather was the first president of Warren County Farm Bureau. Jim also served six years as Soil District Commissioner and six years as secretary to the commissioners.

He served from 1966-1978 in the Iowa House of Representatives and was for four years Chairman of the Natural Resources Society of Iowa Library, Des Moines, Iowa.

Committee.

Since retiring from the House of Representatives he served two years on the Iowa Environmental Quality Commission and is presently a member of the Commission on the Status of Women. Both are appointments by the Governor.

James and Geraldine have been members of Center Chapel United Methodist Church since 1947.

Phyllis Ann married Robert Geyer and lives in Wheaton, IL.

LaVerne married Pat Sorenson of Indianola and lives in Dike, IA. They have two daughters, Laura Jo born 1967 and Jana Lea born 1970.

Irene is married to Roger Case of Indianola, and lives in Indianola where she teaches French in Indianola High School.

MILLER, ABRAHAM

F690

Abraham Miller, Jr.

Abraham Miller, Sr. (1785-1861) and family were early settlers in Warren Co., Ia. Abraham Miller, Sr., wife Margaret (1789-1857), and sons Abraham, Jr. (1831-1886) and Lafayette (1830-1892) sold their land in Hopewell Twp., Seneca Co., Oh., in September of 1855 and moved to Palmyra Twp., Warren Co., Ia. The 1850 Seneca Co., Oh., census recorded that Abraham Sr. was born in Maryland and his wife Margaret in Pennsylvania. Miller is such a common name that no Maryland Miller family connection has been found to date, and Margaret's last name is still unknown. Abraham Miller, Sr. did receive a land grant of 160 acres in Hopewell Twp., Seneca Co., Oh., in 1824 and was in the Ohio censuses of 1830, 1840 and 1850. In Bascom, Oh., in 1831, Abraham Sr. organized the Methodist-Episcopal Church in his home, and soon a small church was built. Abraham Sr. also furnished the desks and benches for the first school in Hopewell Twp., Seneca Co., Oh. He gave some of his land for a cemetery in Bascom, Oh. after one of his sons died while playing in the woods in the area. This was the first cemetery in Bascom, and his son was the first to be buried in the new Sand Ridge Cemetery. In the 1860 Iowa census of Palmyra Twp. in Warren Co., Abraham Sr. was listed in the household as a farmer of 72 years, Abraham Jr. had married Rebecca Smith, and their first son Rezin was one year of age.

In Warren Co. in 1857, Lafayette, the older son, married Martha E. Neal (1838-1914), the daughter of Daniel and Letetia Neal, and farmed near Springhill in Greenfield Twp. The History of Warren County placed L. Miller in Greenfield Twp. near Springhill farming in section 4. The children of Lafayette and Martha Miller were Isaac Newton (1858-1930) who in 1880 married Elizabeth Tresham; Mary Alice (1859-?) who married Frank Boyer; Sarah Evaline (1861-1940) who in 1883 married Samuel James (1859-1943); William Sherman (1864-1929) who never married; Amanda Jane who listed as age 13 in the 1880 Iowa Census and later married Robert Livingstone; Ida Belle who was listed in 1880 as age 11, and Josie Albertie (1873-?) who married Harry Frizell. Lafayette, Martha, and William Sherman are buried at Webb Cemetery in Greenfield Twp., and Sarah and Samuel James are buried at the Middle River Cemetery in Palmyra Twp.

Mariah (1826-1903), the daughter of Abraham Sr. and Margaret Miller, married in 1844 in Seneca Co., Oh., Benjamin Wade (1822-1900), the son of Abner Wade. The 1879 History of Warren County said that Benjamin Wade farmed in section 26 of Palmyra Twp. They had the following children: Joseph, Abraham, Robert, Benjamin, Lafayette, James, Chaney, Margaret T., and Rebecca E. James and Chaney were killed by the Indians near Fort Kearny.

Abraham Jr. was born in Seneca co., Oh., in 1831, and he was first married in Warren Co. in 1857 to Rebecca A. Smith (the Smith parents are unknown). Her brother, Josiah Smith, was married in 1864 to Martha Jane McPherson (1838-1909) (see McPherson family), the daughter of John T. McPherson and Sabina Holiday (or Hadley). Rebecca died May 28, 1868, and about this time her brother died. Then in 1870, the widower Abraham Miller, Jr. and the widow Martha Jane McPherson Smith married each other. The 1879 History of Warren County listed Abraham Jr. as a farmer in Palmyra Twp. in Section 24. The issue of the first marriage of Abraham to Rebecca Miller included John Rezin (1860-1922) who in 1901 married Lucetta "Sadie" Bockey (1861-1923). They had no children. The March third and tenth editions of the 1922 Syracuse, Ks., Journal said that Rezin Miller was found frozen to death after a Western Kansas blizzard. He had gone to town, and on his return to his farm, the storm had struck. His tracks in the snow indicated that he had been blinded by the blizzard and had walked in circles before he died. Mary Emma (c 1861-1886) who in 1885 married Isaac N. McCauley and moved to Leona, Ks. Anna Maria died at the age of four in 1868. James Lightfoot (1868-1947) who in 1887 married Ida Ellen Gibson. The children of the second marriage of Abraham Jr. to Martha Jane McPherson Smith were: Lillian (1871-1923) who in 1891 married Albert C. Hartman (1866-1925), Nora May (1872-1957) who in 1892 married Nathan Cornelius Prall (1861-1920) (see Prall family), and Bertha Elva (1874-1939) who in 1896 married Dr. William Edgar Sperow (1870-1943). Dr. Sperow was a leading citizen and physician of Carlisle until his death in 1943. Today Virginia Botkin, the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Sperow lives in Indianola.

Abraham Miller, Jr. was killed in a train wreck at Albany, Mo., in the winter of 1886 while he and Mrs. Miller were on a trip to Leona, Ks., to visit their daughter Emma who was sick with typhoid fever. Mrs. Miller wasn't even injured in the train accident. Abraham Miller, Jr. and wife Martha Jane McPherson, first wife Rebecca A. Smith and child Anna Maria, and Abraham Miller, Sr. and wife Margaret are all buried at Palmyra Cemetery in Warren Co.

The young Nora May Miller watched and admired Nathan C. Prall as he walked past the Miller farm in Palmyra Twp. and crossed Butcher Creek on his way to school at the Ackworth Academy. They were married in 1892. Nora told her grandchildren stories of the rural pioneer days in the Midwest. She said that when her husband and his brothers were young and lived in Johnson Co., Ia., after the Civil War, the wolves would follow them as they brought in the cows for milking. According to the Seneca Co., Oh., records, a wolf even attacked a Mr. Slosser in 1834, and he killed it with a stick of wood. Also in Seneca Co., a Mrs. Ogle (one account said her daughter) was milking, and the wolves attacked her, and once the Ogle boys were returning from spelling school, and the wolves followed them. Both the Miller and Prall ancestors contributed material to the wolf stories of Nora Miller Prall. Children of Nora Miller and Nathan C. Prall who still reside in Iowa are Dwight E. Prall of Newton and Eva Meloy of Des Moines. Kathy Weeks of Indianola is a granddaughter, and Cindy Coe of Des Moines is a great granddaughter. Other Miller-Prall descendants live out of state. (See the Prall family). For over 130 years descendants of Abraham Miller have lived in Warren Co.
