speeches that will be delivered in the county this fall.

Capt. ROBT. M. WILSON of Albia, died last Wednesday, and was buried Thursday. He was well known in this city in an early day; and was Captain of Co. D, 22d Iowa, of which the junior editor of this paper was a member.

C. Y. WHEELER, formerly of the Hack-eye, later of the Gazette, will soon begin the publication of a paper called "Every Sunday Morning." It will be a large nine column paper, and will no doubt be a valuable addition to Iowa journalism.

Next Saturday the tumble-bugs will set up some candidates for the Republican voters to knock over. They are pulling every string, and will make a desperate effort to carry the county. They will fall 700 short if Republicaens do their duty.

Last week we mentioned the stealing of Geo. W. Henderson's horse from the pasture in Monroe Tp., but since that time we learn that four other animals were taken the same evening. We did not learn the names of the losers. The thieves went north.

The Marengo Republican says: "A pair of very fine imported swine, owned by Messrs. Prine & Son, of Oskaloosa, passed through here enroute for Oskaloosa. The two were valued at $275. Mr. Prine, jr., was with them. Also had other blooded pigs."

His praise is in everybody's mouth, and more impartial, just, prompt, and intellgent judge cannot be found in Iowa. Sue universal praise was never before accorded any man in his first year on the bench.
He will go higher.

The case of Ogilvie vs Hale and Gibb for $50,000 damages, was dismissed as to Hale, and the jury found for defendant.
The case of Ogilvie vs Gibbs Bros and G. Carleton, for $10,000 libel, was sent the jury Wednesday morning, and at the writing the verdict has not been given.

LATER.—The jury brought in a verdict for $500 against Gibbs Bros., the case being dismissed by Ogilvie as to Carleton.

Our "migratory goose" is growing more consistent. He has been a Democrat ever since the elections east, last fall, and he only made one change in that time, and that was to place himself squarely on the whisky plank, that he might the more consistently be a Democrat. A little over year ago he called the Democratic party "that great whore of Babylon." Now his home, his refuge, and he makes bed with it.

MORRIS L. LEVI has just returned from the eastern markets where he has exercised his usual care in selecting a stock of clothing and furnishing goods for market. His little card elsewhere picture attached will tell you more about it than we can, and we will only say you should wade through the cords of acres of clothing in his store before decide where to buy. He has everything from the overall to the broadcloth. "Pay your money and take your choice."
