DEATH OF DR. S. H. McCULLOCK.—
Intelligence was received in this city last evening of the death of Hon. E. S. Mc-Culloch, which occurred yesterday at his home near Primrose. The deceased was formerly State Senator from Lee County, and was an old and prominent citizen.
His funeral will take place at Primrose tomorrow at 11 o'clock.

RUNAWAY.—Yesterday afternoon, while Dr. Bancroft's horse was hitched at the corner of Twelfth and Bank streets, a lot of children came clattering along the sidewalk rolling iron hoops. This frightened the animal and caused it to break loose and run away. After coming a short distance the buggy was upset and the horse became detached from it. He ran down to the next street, turned and looked back, then trotted on home, stopping at the Seventh street well to take a drink. The harness

—The C., B. & Q. passenger train did not arrive until two o'clock this afternoon. The delay was caused by a passenger train on the main line being ditched this morning. As far as we were able to learn the particulars, there were several persons injured, but none seriously. The accident caused a delay of four hours. The track was cleared promptly and everything will be in running order again this evening.

DEATH OF A PIONEER.—In the death of ex-Senator E. S. McCulloch—who breathed his last near Primrose yesterday—Lee county loses one of its earliest settlers. Mr. McCulloch settled in Lee county in 1836 or '37, and has lived in the neighborhood in which he died, ever since. He was a man of peaceful pursuits and loved his farm. By long residence and the upright life he led, he gained the confidence and respect of his neighbors, who looked up to him as a pattern man, whose integrity was unquestioned.

Deceased has been in the legislature several times, was a Democrat all his life, and made a good record while in the general assembly. His funeral takes place Saturday.

Personal.

Mr. Phelan, of Freeman's Journal, New York, was in the city to-day.

Mr. Henry Lynne, of S. E. Carey's queensware house, has been ill, but was around again to-day.

Mr. Geo. Peck, agent for the original General Tom Thumb troupe, is in the city making arrangements for two of the excellent entertainments of his company on the 16th of this month.

Isaac Bliss and wife, Warsaw, are at the Hardin House.

Among others registered at the Patterson House are: W. R. Donnell, Donnell, Isaac, Vernon; E. D. Taylor, Carthage. Fred Macartney, the proprietor of the Gate City against the fire department to the fire committee, and that of Rothert Bro's. to the police committee, the petitions were taken up. There was one from W. B. Collins, offering to compromise an old 1858 bond, due in two years; from W. P. Miller, by his attorney, W. B. Collins, requesting the city to move the board fence from the west 37 1/2 feet of lot 3, block 64, now used as a stone yard; from P. R. Sutton and M. Holdorf, asking permission to put a pipe from their cellar to the corner of 6th and Blondeau streets—granted. From Geo. Lutti for license to sell ale, wine and beer—granted. The rest of the petitions were referred.

The Marshal submitted his report for the quarter ending March 31st, showing arrests as follows: City cases 120, state cases 41; total 161. Received and placed on file.

The Calaboose-keeper's report was also submitted. It is as follows: Amount of fines and costs $389.80; whole number of days worked in the yard, 157; whole number locked up, 163; for crimes as follows: Larceny, 17; assault with intent to commit great bodily injury, 5; murder, 1; arson, 1; forgery, 2; larceny from the person, 2; burglary, 2; selling liquor without license, 10; passing counterfeit money, 1; illegal voting, 1; drunkenness, 52; drunk and disorderly, 25; night prowlers and thieves, 18; vagrants, 7; exposing person, 1; fakirs, 18.

The Recorder's report shows that the whole amount of fines assessed, were $490.00; amount collected, $81.85; uncollected, $148.65; worked out, $259.50. The number of cases were 91, of these 26 were committed, 47 paid and were discharged, 15 were discharged by the recorder, 3 appealed to the court. The amount collected for the past quarter is $81.85, amount of fines collected from previous quarters $16.65. Total paid treasurer $98.50. Amount of fees due recorder, $93.50. The report was received and placed on file, and a warrant was ordered drawn for the amount of fees due.

The wharfmaster's report from February 24th to March 31st, shows the amount collected from boats to be $29.20; amount due from boats refusing to pay, $100.00.

The report of the chief engineer of the fire department, from October 1st, 1876, to March 31st, 1877, contains these items: Total number of fires 11, false alarms 6. Total loss by fires $14,250, insured for $9,950. The cisterns are all in good order. Repairs to the engine houses and the purchase of some new hose was recommended.

The street committee reported in favor of permitting James Martin to put in hay scales, the beam to be either inside the curb or inside of the building. The committee also reported in favor of grading and macadamizing alley in block 38; that they had authorized the filling at foot of "B" street in Reid's addition, and presented the city engineer's report of measurement and price for the work. A report showing the work performed under the committee's direction from Dec. 4th, 1876 to March 31st, 1877, was presented; the same being the amount now paid for the work during that time to be $1,632.30, about three-fourth of this amount being for work on main street

Looks for Hope but Finds Despair.

That bulldozing sheet, the New York Times, that manufactured all the Republican lies of the campaign, and infused them into the craniums of all the smaller editors of the party, bewails the situation in the following significant style:

Wade Hampton, we are told, has counselled his friends at Columbia to repress any feeling of exultation which the removal of the troops from the State House may occasion. His immediate purpose, no doubt, is to obviate the danger of local trouble which would attend a too exuberant manifestation of partisan triumph. If this were all, his published request would indicate the sagacity of a leader who has good reason to be content with the victory he has achieved. The wisdom of the restraint has, however, a yet wider illustration. So far, the action of the administration in abandoning Chamberlain and the cause he has so gallantly upheld has been received by the North with an appearance of indifference which might very easily mislead. If any imagined that the relinquishment of South Carolina to the Democracy would be followed by excitement among the Republicans of other States, they must now confess themselves disappointed. The President has taken the decisive step, and scarcely a sign of indignation or alarm is visible in any part of the North. From this circumstance a superficial observer might be tempted to draw an incorrect conclusion. He might trace in it evidence of popular weariness, even among Republicans, upon the subject. We are willing to assume that the coming Governor of South Carolina measures the current of Northern sentiment more accurately, and that he is anxious to avert the explosion which would certainly follow any demonstration on the part of his followers calculated either to provoke a disturbance of the public peace, or to pervert to partisan uses the policy adopted by the Administration.

The apparent apathy of the North is rendered still more noticeable by the obvious connection which exists between the proceeding resolved upon in regard to South Carolina and that which is pending in regard to Louisiana. The common sense of the country sees that the practical recognition of Hampton in one state must be followed by the practical recognition of Nicholls in the other. There may be technical differences between the two cases, derived from the attitude of the local courts toward the respective claimants for the Governorship, but the distinction is too refined to influence the popular judgment. If it was deemed necessary to sacrifice Chamberlain to propitiate Hampton and his supporters, Packard cannot hope to escape a similar fate simply because the local judiciary happens not to have pronounced against him. In a question of this nature, technicalities amount to little. And the underlying conditions in the two States being substantially identical, it were affectation to suppose that any room for doubt remains with reference to the result in Louisiana. It is, therefore, impossible to feel much interest in the doing of the commission which will to-day leave Washington for that State. It goes upon a superfluous errand. Its inquiries and negotiations will be alike wasted. Why should Mr. Nicholls condescend to talk of terms, or exchange the certainties of his present position for the chances of the plan proposed? Has he not seen that Mr. Hampton, with no better title than his own, has contrived by sheer audacity to carry his however, are important provisions. And if they be not forthcoming, his position will not be enviable.

Obituary.

Hon. E. S. McCulloch departed this life upon the fifth day of April, 1877, in the 62th year of his age. A brief account of the more prominent events of his life will be welcomed by his friends, who are by no means confined to his immediate neighborhood, nor indeed, in Lee county. His last illness and death occurred at his home near Primrose, Harrison township, Lee county, Iowa. Here, amid his children, surrounded by all the comforts and conveniences of a well-appointed household, he received unremitting care, being in the meantime, supplied with proper medical attendance and all the various aids and attentions the times afford. His last days, hours and moments were as comfortable and painless as could have been expected. He apparently enjoyed the full possession of his faculties until the last, having a word of recognition for each of the many callers from far and near, both by day and by night, while he had the power of speech.

Deceased was born in Davidson county, Tennessee, July 3d, 1812. He removed with his parents at an early age to Montgomery county, Illinois. While there in company with his brother David and Wm. Paisley, he enlisted in the Blackhawk war, serving until its close; thence he came to the Territory of Iowa in the fall of 1835, prospecting, and laid claims to the present site of his late, last and ever happy home, returning to Illinois. In 1836 he again returned to Iowa and took possession of his claim. His parents and two brothers came with him. Abide from these there were but three families in the neighborhood.

In the early spring of 1841, in company with Wm. A. Donnell, Esq, he again went to Illinois, where he united his fortunes for life in a marriage with Miss Minerva A. Paisley, March 25, 1841: This union proved to have been most propitious, their mutual happiness being broken only by her death upon the 7th of February, 1873. Her loss seems to have weighed so heavily upon his ordinarily elastic spirits that well nigh every subsequent step in life has been toward the deeper and deeper shadows of a setting sun—a closing day which only precedes the dawn. Those who knew the lady best will be most surprised to learn that upon his return to Iowa in her company, she endured the entire journey on horseback—a distance of over two hundred and fifty miles. Mr. Donnell being also of the returning company, affirms that all enjoyed the trip as though it was solely for pleasure in place of necessity.

What form or particular name of religious faith was favored by the deceased, the writer knows not. He was brought up by strictly religious parents, attended whatever divine service was nearest, spoke respectfully of all denominations, and was ever of the same department, Sabbath or week day. Having lived the life of a Christian, it matters not for a name of man's giving.

His political career was most remarkable, but will only be taken for the most noteworthy events. Passing by all town and county affairs, which were matters of almost constant recurrence, his experience as a legislator will only be briefly noted: Elected in 1841, a representative to the territorial legislature of Iowa from Lee county. He served in that body for three consecutive terms. Re-elected in 1842. Again re-elected in books of the returning officers. Such a peaceable and conciliatory spirit prevails among the influential classes of citizens here that it is impossible to credit the statement of certain carpet-bag politicians that they will have to flee the state if Chamberlain is not recognized."

SPECIAL NOTICES.

DR. SCHENCK'S STANDARD REMEDIES.

The standard remedies for all diseases of the lungs are SCHENCK'S PULMONIC SYRUP, SCHENCK'S SEA WEED TONIC, and SCHENCK'S MANDRAKE PILLS, and if taken before the lungs are destroyed, a speedy cure is effected.

To those three medicines Dr. J. H. Schenck, of Philadelphia, owes his unrivalled success in the treatment of pulmonary diseases.

The Pulmonic Syrup ripens the morbid matter in the lungs; nature throws it off by an easy expectoration, for when the phlegm or matter is ripe a slight cough will throw it off, the patient has rest and the lungs begin to heal.

To enable the pulmonic syrup to do this Schenck's Mandrake Pills and Schenck's Sea Weed Tonic must be freely used to cleanse the stomach and liver. Schenck's Mandrake Pills act on the liver, removing all obstructions, relax the gall bladder, the bile starts freely, and the liver is soon relieved.

READ AND LEARN FOR YOURSELF.

Many valuable discoveries and much useful knowledge is kept from the world, because of the immense expense in making them known to the people. This is not the case with DOESCHER'S GERMAN SYRUP, although but a few years introduced into this country its sale now reaches in every town and village in the United States. Its wonderful success in curing Consumption, severe Coughs, Asthma, and all other diseases of the throat and lungs, was first made known by distributing every year, for three years, over 400,000 bottles to the afflicted, free of charge, by Druggists. No such a test of merit was ever given before to any other preparation. Could you ask more? Go to your Druggist and get a bottle for 75 cents and try it. Sample bottles 10 cents.

WE CAN SAFELY ASSERT that Dr. Marshall's Lung Syrup is the best remedy for Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis and all pulmonary complaints. Call on your druggist and try a bottle. The price is only 25 cents. For sale by Wilkinson, Bartlett & Co., Keokuk, Iowa.

SYMPTOMS OF WORMS.
 THE countenance is pale and leaden-colored, with occasional flushes, or a circumscribed spot on one or both cheeks; the eyes become dull; the pupils dilate; an azure semicircle runs along the lower eyelid; the nose is irritated, swells, and sometimes bleeds; a swelling of the upper lip; occasional headache, with humming or throbbing of the ears; an unusual secretion of saliva; slimy or furred tongue; breath very foul, particularly in the morning; appetite variable, sometimes voracious, with a gnawing sensation of the stomach, at others, entirely gone; fleeting pains in the stomach; occasional nausea and vomiting; violent pains throughout the abdomen; bowels irregular, at times costive; stools slimy; not unfrequently tinged with blood; belly swollen and hard; urine turbid; respiration occasionally difficult, and accompanied by hic-cough; cough sometimes dry and convulsive; uneasy and disturbed sleep, with grinding of the teeth; temper variable, but generally irritable, &c.

Whenever the above symptoms are found to exist, DR. C. McLANE'S VERMIFUGE will certainly effect a cure. IT DOES NOT CONTAIN MERCURY in any form; it is an innocent preparation, not capable of doing the slightest injury to the most tender infant. The genuine DR. McLANE'S VERMIFUGE bears the signatures of C. McLANE and FLEMING BROS. on the wrapper.

DR. C. McLANE'S
LIVER PILLS.

These Pills are not recommended as a remedy "for all the ills that flesh is heir to," but in affections of the liver, and in all Bilious Complaints, Dyspepsia, and Sick Headache, or diseases of that character, they stand without a rival.

AGUE AND FEVER.
 No better cathartic can be used preparatory to, or after taking Quinine. As a simple purgative they are unequalled.

BWARE OF IMITATIONS.
 The genuine are never sugar coated. Each box has a red wax seal on the lid, with the impression DR. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS. Each wrapper bears the signatures of C. McLANE and FLEMING BROS. Sold by all respectable druggists and country storekeepers generally.

 "THE REMAINDER OF THE STOCK"

What particular form of worship or name of religious faith was favored by the deceased, the writer knows not. He was brought up by strictly religious parents, attended whatever divine service was nearest, spoke respectfully of all denominations, and was ever of the same department, Sabbath or week day. Having lived the life of a Christian, it matters not for a name of man's giving. His political career was most remarkable, but space will only be taken for the most noteworthy events. Passing by all town and county affairs, which were matters of almost constant recurrence, his experience as a legislator will only be briefly noted: Elected in 1841, a Representative to the Territorial Legislature of Iowa from Lee county, he served in that body for three consecutive terms. Re-elected in 1842. Again re-elected in 1850 and took an active part in the revision of the laws at that time. In 1854 he was elected to the State Senate, serving four years. In 1860 we find him again in the Legislature, and again taking a responsible position in the general revision of laws. In 1870 again a Senator and again assisting to revise the code of the State. It is sufficient evidence of the appreciation of his labors by the people that up to the last he was considered the strongest candidate of the times, and for the occasion in the party of his political faith in the county, and this supposition was proven correct beyond question at the polls.

Socially he was as popular as politically. Like most of "old settlers" and all true Christians, he was hospitable almost to a fault. His home was proverbial as "home" to all his friends, or those who sought his acquaintance, wayfaring or otherwise. Forgetful of self in his solicitude for the welfare of others, perhaps his days were shortened by the multitude of offices, official positions, establishing State and county roads, settling up estates, and divers other county, town and neighborhood matters and difficulties, even a title of which are utterly beyond the possibility of recollection by the writer, who knew him intimately for over thirty years. As may be inferred from his success in life, as above chronicled, his general character was genial to well-meaning minds, cultivated or otherwise, in all grades of society. Ever courteous, even in reproof, the friendly intent was plainly manifest, while an untarnished honor was immovably enthroned over all of his moods, motives, acts and deeds. But now at last, the prattling infant, once so tenderly cared for, the gleeful child guileless of wrong, the robust youth trained up to proper ways for manhood, the conscientious, tender hearted but firm in honor's ways. Man created in the image of the omniscient, ever-living God. With us but yesterday, but now the end of one form of existence hath come. Earth to earth and the spirit to the God that gave it being. The last long, lingering look from hundreds of friends, and the mortal remains of our friend are borne gently, slowly, sadly away. The last sad rites are over. The last eloquent words fitly spoken, and while soft strains of appropriate music go sighing over the tombs of his ancestors, dying gently away 'mid the echoes of the primeval forest, we lay him gently by the side of the pride of his heart; the sympathetic sharer of all his joys and sorrows through life; the mother of his children whom they hath loved better than life and to whose care we must leave their last resting place. J. S.

Description:
 This database is an index to individuals enumerated in the 1870 United States Federal Census, the Ninth Census of the United States. Census takers recorded many details including each person's name, age at last birthday, sex, color; birthplace, occupation, and more. No relationships were shown between members of a household. Additionally, the names of those listed on the population schedule are linked to actual images of the 1870 Federal Census. Learn more...
