Hospital Notes.

Thomas Faulkner, of Mistle, the young man who was so seriously injured by a moving train some weeks ago, submitted to having the right leg, which had been badly crushed, amputated Wednesday. His physician brought all his skill into service in an endeavor to save the injured member but it had become so infected that the operation was deemed necessary to save his life. The unfortunate young man is certainly to be pitied, and his sad experience should be an effective object lesson to other thoughtless boys.

John Beck, of Jerome, who has been at the hospital a number of weeks as a result of a mine accident, in which he suffered a broken back, still remains in a helpless condition. His general health, however, is improved and for the most part he rests fairly comfortable.

James Nelson, of Centerville, recently submitted to his physician's advice and suffered the amputation of an infected finger which it was thought would check further trouble, but he is again a patient, the operation not having proved an entire success, the whole hand now being badly infected. His physician is making heroic efforts to save the hand but it is impossible to predict for a certainty what the outcome will be.

Mark Lasac, of Numa, who is passing through a siege of typhoid, is doing nicely and no fatal or even serious results are anticipated.

William Lampkins, of Brazil, who sometime ago underwent an operation for hernia and who later suffered a relapse by the development of pneumonia, is very slowly convalescing.

The remainder of the patients are improving so rapidly that special mention is superfluous.

The new proprietors are expected to assume control today, or tomorrow. Miss Smith has been retained as manager until the first of January. The question of what course the present corps of nurses will decide upon, is daily being discussed by those ladies, and considerable indecision exists.

Miss Little, of Des Moines, one of the late "recruits" has expressed her intention of remaining in service here for the present at least. Miss Hawkins think it altogether probable that she will remain until the first of the new year, and Miss White expect to further their ambitions by graduating from some desirable training

Wellknown Citizen and Staunch Democrat Passes from Useful Life.

(Moulton Telegram)

Hon. J. B. Stuckey died at his residence on West Fifth street Wednesday morning, December 1st, 1909, aged 75 years. He leaves a wife and six children—Alva, Samuel, Leonard, Oscar, Mrs. Elmer Caylor, and Mrs. Wm. Pollock of Chicago. All were present at the funeral.

James Brown Stuckey was born in Martinsburg, West Va. In 1857 he located in Jefferson county, Iowa, and in 1865 moved to Appanoose county where he resided some five miles northwest of here until moving to Moulton two years ago. He was a staunch Democrat and Presbyterian of the old school, an ardent temperance worker and a sterling citizen.

In 1872 Mr. Stuckey was sent from Appanoose county to the State Legislature for two years, serving his constituency with honesty of purpose. He was a well-to-do farmer and always a helper in the community. His family were raised right and are among our most esteemed citizens.

The funeral took place Thursday from the residence and was largely attended. Interment was at Oakland cemetery. Rev. A. M. Smith, of the M. E. church, and Rev. Joe Baker, a Baptist friend near Unionville conducted the solemn services.

The Delineator for December.

The Christmas number of The Delineator represents all that is best in the making of a magazine. It is sumptuously illustrated, and the pages that offer the cream of current literature, special articles by leading thinkers and fascinating descriptions of the fashions are decorated most artistically.

"My Principles of Giving" is subject of special moment at Christmas-time, and wide interest will be felt in what John D. Rockefeller and Henry Cabot Lodge, and Thomas H. Swope, John H. Cowan, Nathan Straus and Evangeline Booth have written.

DES MOINES
EMORY H. ENGLISH, STATE PRINTER
E. D. CASSELL, STATE BINDER
1911

He was extensively engaged in settling up estates and probate matters. For many years he was president of the Norwegian Mutual Insurance Association of Winneshiek county. He took great interest in the preservation of the pioneer history of the state, and he did considerable writing on this subject, both in the English and Norwegian languages. Being a man of mind and action he was also both a theoretical and practical farmer. His farm was up to date in every respect, but he was always willing to impart his knowledge and experience to others. He was for the last fifteen years of his life editor of the "Practical Farmer's" department of Decorah Posten, a leading Norwegian newspaper.

Whereas, The Hon. Abraham Jacobsen, member of the Thirtieth and Thirty-first General Assemblies, departed this life on the 15th day of May, 1910, at his home near Decorah, Iowa, and,

Whereas, The life and character of the deceased were such as to entitle him to the respect and esteem of all who knew him—a man beloved by all for his generous and kindly heart, his sterling integrity and uprightness of life; therefore be it

Resolved, That the House of Representatives take this occasion to express its high regards and appreciation of his character and public services, and at this time extend to his family its sincere sympathy in their sorrow; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the Journal of the House and that the chief clerk be directed to send an enrolled copy to the family of the deceased.

HON. JAMES B. STUCKEY.

MR. SPEAKER: Your committee appointed to prepare and present suitable resolutions respecting the life, character and public services of the Honorable James B. Stuckey, late a member of the House of Representatives of the Sixteenth General Assembly of Iowa, beg leave to report the following:

The subject of this memorial was born November 7, 1834, and departed this life at his home in Moulton, Appanoose County, Iowa, on the first day of December, 1909. He was engaged in the occupation of farming and stock raising from the time he came to Appanoose county, a number of years ago, up to a few years ago, when he retired from this occupation and moved to the town of Moulton.

Mr. Stuckey was a man who was loved and respected by all who knew him. He was an active member of the Methodist church and took an interest in all matters pertaining to the welfare of that organization.

He was identified with the democratic party, and active in the councils of his party. He was elected to the office of Representative from Appanoose county to the Sixteenth General Assembly of Iowa, retirement did not mean, however, his retirement from the activities of life, for on down to the time of his death he was actively engaged and served the people of his county in a faithful and capable manner, which reflected credit upon himself and those he was called upon to represent.

The life, character and public services of Mr. Stuckey were such as to command the respect and admiration of all who knew him; therefore, be it

Resolved, That in his death the state has lost a citizen of worth and whose every act was above reproach; and be it further

Resolved, That we extend to his family and friends our sincere sympathy and that a copy of these resolutions be entered upon the Journal of the House and that a copy of the same be forwarded to the bereaved family of the deceased.

W. T. DANIELS,
C. W. HUNT,
THOS. HICKENLOOPER,
Committee.

Adopted.

HON. MAHLON J. DAVIS.

MR. SPEAKER: Your committee appointed to draft resolutions commemorative of the life, public services and character of Hon. Mahlon J. Davis, a former member of this House, respectfully submits the following:

Hon. Mahlon J. Davis was born in Juniata county, Pennsylvania, on the 27th day of October, 1837, and closed his earthly labors, and went to his reward, at Lewis, Iowa, on the 2nd day of February, 1908.

As a young man, the subject of this sketch laid well the foundation for his chosen profession, that of medicine, by attending Airy View Academy for two years, and Kishacoquillas Seminary for three years, after which he spent two years in the study of medicine under Dr. D. M. Crawford, at Millerstown, Pennsylvania, and thereafter took a course at the Medical University, New York City, from which institution he was graduated in March, 1862. After having thus become so admirably equipped as a physician, he enlisted in the defense of his country's flag, and was at once assigned to hospital duty in the city of Washington, where, after two years service, he was appointed surgeon of the Second New York Artillery. During 1864-5, he was surgeon-in-chief to the second corps on General Hazard's staff, where he remained in faithful service until the grand review at Washington.

After the restoration of peace, Dr. Davis returned to his native state, and resumed the practice of his profession, having located at Newport, in Perry county. He was united in marriage in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, December 27th, 1864, to Priscilla K. Shuman, who with his three sons, William B. Davis, Lewis, Iowa, Brode B. Davis, Chicago, Illinois, and Charles P. Davis, Chicago, Illinois, survive him to mourn the loss of an indulgent and devoted husband and father.

In 1866 he removed to Lewis, Iowa, where he remained in the practice of medicine as an honored and skilled physician, until the year 1881, when he retired from the activities of his profession. This retirement did not mean, however, his retirement from the activities
