Death of Hon. I. K. Terry.

Word has been received here announcing the death of Hon. I. K.
Terry, at his home in Omaha, of cancer of the stomach, last evening. His friends here have from time to time past been advised of the critical condition of the deceased, and were not surprised to learn that the end had come, although it created no little sorrow among his former neighbors, friends and acquaintances. Mr. Terry was born in Tompkins county, New York, in June, 1824, consequently was in his 66th year. He was raised a farmer, remaining at home to assist his father until 23 years of age. In 1847 he was married to Miss Caroline Colgrove, who, with four children, are left to mourn his demise. For a period of six years after his marriage Mr. Terry remained in Tompkins county, then removed to California, where he for three years engaged in teaming and threshing; for the latter he received fifteen cents per bushel, making as high as $200 per day. At the expiration of the three years he returned to New York, remained one year and then came to Iowa, locating in Wilton township, where he owned 400 acres of ground. During his residence in Wilton township he was honored with various offices, and was twice sent to the Legislature to represent Muscatine county, which he did most acceptably. He was also President of the Muscatine County Agricultural Society several years. He was an extensive stock raiser and gained a wide acquaintance throughout the county and State. A few years ago he removed to Omaha and has since resided there.

His remains will be brought to Wilton for burial, the interment and funeral services being appointed for 11 to-morrow morning from the M.
E. church.—Daily 2

 curred Thursday at 11 a. m., from the M. E church. The services were conducted by Rev. F. W. Adams. Mr.
 Terry was a man of much force of character and was universally highly esteemed. The many friends of the family in this vicinity extend their sin-

 Divine worship were well attended.
 The flowers were many and beautiful.

 sionary work and as an Easter offering, amounted to $50.

 the week to her studies at Grinnell.

 in Justice Fretzel's court Monday and

The horse and cattle show which was held here last Saturday drew a large number of people to our little city, making business lively for the merchants. Another show is appointed for the first Saturday in May.

The benefit concert given last Friday evening for W. S. Unthank was well attended. The proceeds amounted to $22.
