W. Camp, John Applegate, E. L. Wilson and Jas. Ferguson, each having a case. The Fletcher family are also quarantined at present, owing to the fact that Mrs. Fletcher, who was taking care of Roy Hamilton at night, went home each morning, and the health authorities deemed it wise under those conditions to insist on a quarantine regulation. Absurd stories are afloat all over this section of the country regarding the disease, but the above are the facts and in the judgment of the ECLIPSE it is foolish to be frightened, particularly so if people are vaccinated. There have been no deaths and with the exception of one case, none have been sick enough to be confined to their beds. It is probable that the disease has about reached its limit, and for this week there will be no additional cases. Quarantine regulations have been strictly enforced and a large proportion of the population vaccinated, and with the other precautions taken no further danger need be apprehended, either by the farming community or the people in town.

OBITUARY.

Abram V. Stout was born in Green county, Ill., Nov. 29, 1841, and died at his home in Beaver township, Grundy county, Iowa, March 28, 1900.

He was united in marriage to Sarah J. Sutton, January 1, 1866. To them were born nine children, four sons and five daughters, all of whom are living except Mary F. who died March 16, 1898. In 1869 Mr. Stout moved his family to Iowa, settling soon after on the present family homestead, where with careful, painstaking effort he established a beautiful home with comfortable buildings and modern improvement.

In early life he became a Christian and united with the Presbyterian church but on coming to Iowa, finding no organization of that church, he for a time worshipped with the Congregationalists. BAD ACCIDENT.

Albert Knot, son of Jos. Knot, met with an accident Tuesday morning which will make him a cripple for life. He and a companion started on a hunting trip and in crossing the Central's railroad bridge west of town, Albert, who was carrying the gun, allowed it to slip from his hand between the ties and in recovering it commenced to pull the gun toward him, barrel first. The hammer caught, the cartridge exploded, the entire charge passing through his left hand, carrying away the fingers at the knuckle joint, leaving only the thumb. Albert came home immediately and was taken to a physician where the injured hand was dressed. The injured lad is thirteen years of age and this accident places him at a great disadvantage in earning a living. Unless other complications set the wound will soon heal.

Smallpox in Parkersburg.

Considerable apprehension exists in some quarters over the existence of smallpox in Parkersburg and hundreds of people are afraid to enter the city. It is, however, in spite of the fact that all cases are strictly quarantined. This, Thursday morning, there are but a few cases.

elements of the community were united and regular religious services were established and sustained. It was his idea that at any cost religious worship should be maintained, that it is the highest and most important duty of parents to provide for their children the means of Christian culture and improvement and looking beyond the thought of present benefit, prepare the way for the success of the gospel of Jesus Christ. He was a firm believer in the teachings of the bible and labored earnestly to establish the kingdom of God upon earth. In his business intercourse with his fellowmen he was upright and manly and always tried to follow the golden rule. He always felt a strong and active interest in public affairs and had decided opinions on all questions of public interest. He served his county as representative in the legislature from 1880 to 1884, and served on several important committees.

He was a firm advocate of temperance and gave freely of his time and money to advance the cause. He was recognized as one of the leading agriculturalists of the country and was frequently honored by being appointed a delegate to various meetings and congresses affecting the interests of the farmers. He served by virtue of the governor's appointment as a delegate to the international farmers' congress during the world's fair in 1893, and also a delegate and vice-president for the state of Iowa to the various national farmers' Congress held since that time. In 1894 the state legislature elected him a trustee for the Iowa Agricultural College for a term of six years and he was a useful and influential member of the board. He felt a great interest in the welfare of the young people and was always ready to offer them any aid or assistance in his power to give, the greatest of which was the inspiring lesson of his own noble life.

One of his first acts in reaching his new home in Grundy county was to organize a Sunday school, he being the ever faithful and efficient superintendent for twenty consecutive years, and he maintained his interest in Sunday school work to the end.

He was of a bright and cheerful disposition, never cherishing animosity and all felt the inspiration of his hopeful and genial nature. His health began to fail about the

We're Out For Business

Our health is remarkably good we're just going to pitch right in and show you that hereafter it will be DOLLARS and CENTS ADVANCE to you to buy all your lumber and building material from us. What are we going to sell? LUMBER, SASH, DOORS, BUILDING MATERIAL, COAL, CEMENT, and—and—well, and everything that is usually sold at a first class lumber yard. We don't want to jump right in and be the "winner." Not at all. But we will give you one thing, gentlemen: If I cut any figure, you'll feel "patting yourself on the back" when you buy from us. Prices are very low here; Very Low; Way Down fact. Quality? Experience has taught us to sell the Best of Everything. Accommodating? Yes; besides selling you first-class material at bottom prices we always strive to be accommodating and extend little courtesies we can to our customers. Just ask 'em and see they don't say we do? Remember us now, and when you want anything in our line, get our prices before you buy.

prospered in his agricultural ventures. He is a strong Republican in politics, and has held many township offices of trust. As may be expected, he is a member of the Grand Army of the Republic, being connected with Robert Olmstead Lodge No. 243, at New Hartford.

HON. A. V. STOUT came to Grundy County in 1868 a young man with a determination to succeed in the far west, and that he has succeeded is evidenced by the fact that he is living a retired life on a fine estate of three hundred and sixty acres located in Beaver Township, of which he is the proprietor. He is a native of Greene County, Ill., his birth occurring November 29, 1841. His parents, natives of New Jersey, were Jacob V. D. and Helen (Voorhees) Stout. They reared a family of six children, of whom those living besides our subject are P. D. and J. V. D.

The father of our subject was reared on a farm in Somerset County, N. J., and after acquiring a fair education in the district school, learned the trade of a carpenter, which he followed for many years. He was a young man of twenty-two years when he started for the then far west; he made his first stop in Greene County, Ill., whence he later removed to Morgan County, where he was residing on a farm at the time of his decease in 1893, at the age of seventy-seven years. He was a member of the Presbyterian Church, and was an Elder for forty years. In early life a Democrat, after the repeal of the Missouri Compromise, he joined the ranks of the Republican party, for whose candidates he afterward voted.

Peter Stout, the grandfather of our subject, was also a native of New Jersey, where he followed the occupations of a miller and millwright. He was the son of Maj. Thomas Stout, who likewise hailed from New Jersey, and served during the entire period of the Revolutionary War. He was a very intimate friend of Washington's, and at the close of hostilities refused to accept a pension.

Our subject comes of English ancestors on the paternal side, while on the maternal side he is of Dutch descent.

Mrs. Helen Stout, the mother of our subject, received a fair education in her native place in New Jersey, and on accompanying her parents on their removal to Greene County, Ill., in 1837, was nineteen years of age. There Mr. Voorhees located on a farm which is now the site of the city of Roodhouse. Mrs. Stout was a member of the Presbyterian Church, and died at her home near Jacksonville, Ill., at the age of sixty-four years.

Our subject remained under the parental roof until reaching his majority, in the meantime having received his primary education in the district school of Morgan County. Later he prosecuted his studies in the Jacksonville High Schools, and when starting out in life for himself, hired out as a farm hand by the month. Later he became traveling agent for an insurance company, but did not follow this occupation longer than five months, when he again returned to farm work.

January 1, 1866, A. V. Stout and Miss Sarah E. Sutton were united in marriage. The lady was the daughter of Stephen and Mary F. (Hamilton) Sutton, natives respectively of New Jersey and Kentucky. Their union has been blessed by the birth of nine children, all of whom are living, namely: Helen V., John H., Mary F., Gennetta, Fred V. D., Jennie, Maggie C., Earl V. D. and Charles R. Mrs. Stout's father was Clerk of the Circuit and District Courts of Morgan County, and up to the time of her marriage she assisted him in his office work. She is a lady of fine education.

At the time of his marriage, our subject owned a thirty-one acre farm near Jacksonville, Ill., which tract he afterward sold, and coming to Iowa in 1868, purchased over five hundred acres in Beaver Township, Grundy County, where he now makes his home. He has since disposed of some of his property, but still keeps in his possession three hundred and sixty acres, which constitute one of the most valuable tracts in the township.

Believing in the ability and trustworthiness of Mr. Stout, his fellow-citizens have at various times called upon him to fill local positions of more or less responsibility and honor. For three years he was County Supervisor, and has been Township Assessor and also Justice of the Peace. Socially, he is a member of the Legion of Honor. He holds membership in the Methodist Episcopal Church, and is serving as Trustee and Steward. Politically, he is a strong Republican, and as a member of that party was elected to the Legislature in the year 1880. During his term of four years he served on various important committees, and was a member of the Committee on Constitutional Amendments at the time the Prohibition clause was first introduced, and was also Chairman of the Committee on Agriculture. He was candidate for State Senator in 1893, and was only defeated by a small majority. He is actively interested in agricultural matters, and in 1887 was appointed by Governor Larabee a delegate to the National Farmers' Congress. In 1893 he held a similar appointment to the World's Farmers' Congress. He has also been representative to the Iowa Stock Breeders' Association, of which body he is a prominent member.

NATHANIEL L. LOUNSBERRY. Among the honored and respected citizens of Bangor Township, Marshall County, is the subject of our sketch. He is the son of Joshua W. H. and Ruth M. (Gurnsey) Lounsberry, and was born in Trumbull County, Ohio, February 2, 1836. Grandfather Joseph Lounsberry was of Welsh descent, his father coming from Wales to America and settling in New York State. Joseph Lounsberry was born in New York March 8, 1776, and was twice married. His first union, which occurred May 17, 1801, was with Mary Whitney, and his second marriage took place February 2, 1815, and united him with Hannah Whitney. The children by the first union were: Laura Latin, Lury Judd, Lucy Bunnel, Joshua W. H., Rufus R. (who married Sarah Weeks) and Eliza Maxwell.

Joshua W. H., the father of our subject, was born

February 18, 1809, in Broome County, N. Y., in which state he operated a lumber mill, being a millwright by trade. In the fall of 1835 he removed to Trumbull County, Ohio, where he owned and operated a sawmill, and was also an agent for engines. From there he removed to Lorain County, Ohio, and after remaining there for a short time went to Richland County, Ohio, thence to Morrow County, afterward returning to Lorain County. In the spring of 1856 going to Iowa City, he put up a sawmill. In 1858 he removed to Eldora, where he worked at his trade for a while and then bought a farm near Union. Afterward selling that property, he removed into the village of Union, where he died August 31, 1892. In politics he was first a Democrat, but afterward became a Republican. He was a member of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows. He was three times married. By his first wife there were four children, one of whom died in childhood. Those who attained mature years were: Mary Cummings, who died in New York; J. G., of Union; and N. L. The second marriage was with Priscilla Gage, and by this union there were seven children, namely: Charles, Permelia, Alexander, Harvey W., Rhoda J., Lucy A. and Emma. The third wife, who was formerly Sarah Bird, of New York, became the mother of one child, Ella. Religiously Mr. Lounsberry was connected with the Congregational Church; his first wife was a Presbyterian. Our subject's mother was born in Broome County, N. Y. Her father was a farmer, and her paternal grandfather came from Guernsey Island. She passed away in 1836.

Our subject's education was limited to the district school, and when eighteen years of age his father gave him the choice between learning a trade and pursuing his education. He chose the former, and learned the trade of a carpenter, which vocation he followed for twenty years. In the spring of 1856 he removed to Iowa City with his brother, and thence in 1858 went to Eldora, remaining with his father three years and continuing to work at his trade. In the fall of 1861 he came to Bangor Township and bought forty acres of land where he now resides. He has since added forty acres, making in all eighty acres of well im-
