The greatest invention ever made for human eyes. Prof. Hirschberg, the well-known optician of 629 Olive street, St. Louis, is the patentee of the Diamond and Non-Changeable Spectacles and Eye-Glasses, the superior quality of which is acknowledged by the best oculists and physicians all over. All who use them are only too glad to testify to their clearness, durability and comfort, and ease they give to the eyes, even at the most difficult work.

Prof. H. Hirschberg will be in Cedar Rapids from April 18 until April 23 and while there will adjust glasses to all in need of such, and will make no charge for consultation and examination of eyes. H. D. Cone & Albright have been appointed agents for Prof. Hirschberg's Diamond and Non-Changeable Spectacles and Eye-Glasses and they will have a full stock of the above mentioned spectacles and eye-glasses.

It is the brightness, not the darkness, that we see when we look back.

Dr. S. A. Garber, of Tipton, has rented rooms in the Granby block and will open a dental office in this city about April 11th.

If our high ideas could be realized, would they not cease to be ideals?

Rev. A. H. Marsh Edwards, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church at Rockwell, died the other morning. He recently came from England.

MR. J. W. MOWREY, of JARVISVILLE, Va., says: "Since we have been handling Chamberlain's Cough remedy we have sold it on a guarantee and found that every bottle did good service. We have used it ourselves and think it superior to any other preparation we know of. 50 cent bottles for sale by druggists."

An effort is being made to revive the First Iowa Infantry association and hold a reunion this fall at such place as may be selected.

This Good Man and Excellent Citizen Called to His Final Reward.

Word came to the city yesterday of the death of Hon. J. J. Nugent at his home in Coggon at 7 o'clock the morning before. This death takes from Linn county one of its best and most highly respected citizens. His was the type of manhood that the Iowa farms produce. Though called to fill many positions of trust and not a few of honor he proved equal to every call and honored every place he filled.

Ford and to them were born four children. He was postmaster from 1855 to 1863 and held other offices of local trust. In 1885 he was elected one of the representatives of this county and gave most excellent service at the state capitol. His death means the loss of a faithful, upright and valuable citizen and true and loving father and friend who will be generally mourned.
