time advisor to the Simpson College Chapter of Alpha Tau Omega, past commander of Warren Post 165, The American Legion.

Four men were elected as directors for three-year terms. They are: Roger Case, Vernon Borchering, Marion Vander Werff and Jack Selfkas.

Valbracht Speaks

Any guilt merchants may have had for promoting Christmas buying immediately following and even before Thanksgiving was at least partially dispelled by the Rev. Louis Valbracht, pastor of St. John's Lutheran Church, Des Moines, who spoke on "Have a Good Laugh."

Critics who decry commercialism and materialism at Christmas-time and call for "putting Christ back in Christmas," he termed profits of gloom and doom.

"What do we mean, 'putting Christ back in Christmas?'" The Rev. Mr. Valbracht asked. "We have taken a pagan festival, Saturnale, and made it almost thoroughly Christian." (Feasting and the exchange of gifts at Christmas probably can be traced to Saturnale, an early Roman observance).

Christmas has become so commercialized, said the Rev. Mr. Valbracht, because there is more evidence of materialism, it probably is because there are more materials.

"Christmas is one time of the year when our commercialism and our materialism is somewhat sanctified," he declared.

Laughter Missing

Laughter is the missing note—the lost chord of our day. "We, with all of our blessings, are short of joy. We have a surplus of nearly everything else except laughter," the Rev. Mr. Valbracht said.

"If you are contributing to community joy," he told the businessmen, "I don't care if it is through commercialism or materialism, there is nothing sinister or evil about it."

The speaker was introduced by Jim Davies. Forrest Burgin, outgoing president of the Indianola Chamber of Commerce, was master of ceremonies.

THE HISTORY OF WARREN COUNTY, IOWA

*Three rivers flow through lands of farms and woods:
North River; Middle River;
South River;
Unpretentiously they take their separate ways
Before they join the current of the wide Des Moines.
Though now the realm claims
dignity as "Warren County" Centered round the square of Indianola where its
Court House stands,
Its rolling hills and streams were always
"The Three River Country"
to the pioneers.*

PRALL, THOMAS W.

F834

In 1857, Thomas Wilson Prall rode horseback from Indiana to Van Buren Co., IA, with his father, Cornelius Nathan Prall, and his cousin, Wilson Prall. Cornelius Nathan Prall returned to Indiana to live out his life. In 1875, Thomas W. Prall moved his family to Warren Co., IA.

The first Prall immigrant to America was Arendt Jansen Van Naerden Prall (ca. 1647-1725) who was first mentioned in the old Dutch records at Kingston, NY in 1663. On June 3, 1670, Arendt Prall married Maria

Thomas and Rachel (Richardson) Prall

Billiou, a French Huguenot, who was born in 1650 in Leyden, Holland, and they settled on a land grant on Staten Island near her folks, Peter Billiou and Francoise Dubois. Arendt's parents, his birth date, and his country of origin have not been determined, but it is believed that he was born in the Netherlands in about 1647 and came to the New Netherlands as a young man around 1660. He was a wheelwright by trade and was a tax assessor and supervisor before he died on Staten Island in 1725. Today the Staten Island Huguenot Memorial Church has one pillar dedicated to the Prall and Billiou families, and off the west side of Staten Island there is a Prall Island. Peter Billiou's house is still standing on Staten Island, and it is the oldest house on Staten Island. Presently, Staten Island has a Prall street and a Billiou street, a Prall Junior High School, and Pralls still live on Staten Island.

Captain Peter Prall (1672-1748), the oldest son of Arendt, was a captain in the militia between 1700 and 1713 and made one expedition to Canada in 1711. He was a farmer, a tax assessor in 1702, and he bought large tracts of land in New Jersey. He married Mary Christopher, Althea Garritson, and Elizabeth (last name unknown) before his death in 1748.

Peter Prall (1700-1761), the son of Capt. Peter Prall, married Sarah Grandain about 1722, and they settled in Amwell Twp., Hunterdon Co., NJ. Their farm was on the old York road that crossed the Delaware River at Coryell's ferry. Peter gave the land for the old Presbyterian church and the Pleasant Ridge Cemetery across the road from his farm. Generations of Pralls and allied families, even Revolutionary War Pralls, are buried in the cemetery.

Peter Prall (1722-1772), the son of the above Peter Prall, married about 1743 Sarah Farley. One son, John, married into the Coryell Ferry family and supposedly helped gather boats for General George Washington's crossing of the Delaware to attack Trenton during the Revolutionary War. Another son, George, is in the New Jersey Revolutionary War records. His descendants
