Toastmasters elect Norton

Andy Norton was elected division lieutenant governor of

Andy Norton

Toastmasters International at the district meeting in Cedar Rapids recently.

Local members present were Ray Fairbank, governor of Area 8; Ted Barnes, president of Ottumwa Toastmaster Club Michael Dean, past president, and Ed Peinke, membership chairman.

The local club meets every Tuesday at 6 p.m. at Red Lyon Inn.

Funds collected for storm victims

Persons wishing to contribute money to assist victims of the Lubbock, Texas tornado can do so by sending or bringing their contributions to the Wapello County Chapter, American Red Cross, at 102 Church Street in the Coliseum.

All contributions received will be submitted for the assistance of the some 3,000 victims of the tornado disaster on May 11.

LICENSES APPROVED

Wapello County supervisors approved food and beer licenses Monday for Vivian Haines, doing business as the Sylvania Club. They also approved lic-

March 4, 1912 in Ottumwa. He preceded her in death in 1963.

Survivors include two sons, Harry W. Leonard of Ottumwa and E. F. (Jim) Leonard of Glen Burnie, Md.; one daughter, Mrs. Maxine Mundt of Bell, Calif.; 10 grandchildren, seven great-grandchildren; and one sister, Mrs. Hazel Sholes of Ottumwa. Also preceding her in death were one son, Teddy, in 1965, five brothers and two sisters.

Funeral services will be Thursday at 1:30 p.m. at Johnson Funeral Chapel with the Rev. Cecil Simonton of Davis Street Christian Church officiating. Burial will be in Shaul Cemetery.

Samuel Burton

Samuel (Sam) H. Burton, 55, the only son born of Frank H. and Ruth Johnson Burton, died at his home in Des Moines Sunday evening.

Born July 30, 1914, he spent most of his life in the Ottumwa area, part of the time as a beer distributor. He moved to Des Moines four years ago.

Survivors include his wife, Helen; one son, Larry of Mount Pleasant; and a daughter, Sally of Ottumwa.

Funeral services will be Wednesday at 11 a.m. at Dunn's Funeral Home in Des Moines. Burial will be in Des Moines.

Frank Ritchie

Frank G. Ritchie, 80, died at Ottumwa Hospital Monday at 2:45 p.m.

He was born April 25, 1880 in Eldon, the son of George and Elizabeth Duffie Ritchie. He spent most of his younger years in the Eldon community. He moved to Chicago in March of 1923 where he was an employe of the Consumer Co. After retirement in 1955, he moved to Ottumwa.

Survivors include four cousing approximately eight acres, in Agency Township, and Rex Deiters, who asks the change on a 10-acre tract in the northeast corner of Green Township.

Both men had previously filed applications for zoning changes and both had been denied.

In his new application, Blake proposes to establish a machine sales lot and to erect a 50 by 50-foot building to store the equipment. Objections have been voiced by directors of the Agency Cemetery Association. The property in question lies just south of the cemetery. His newest request states he will not place the equipment any nearer than 300 feet of the cemetery line.

Deiters proposes to continue a

Carl Williamson

Carl V. Williamson, 78, of Lincoln, Calif., a former Ottumwan, died at his home Sunday at 5:57 p.m. Locally, he was a former Prudential Insurance agent and a former American Legion Post adjutant.

The son of Charles and Hedda Gustafson Williamson, he was born April 4, 1892 in Ottumwa. He moved to California 27 years ago.

A World War I veteran, he entered the Army on July 22, 1918 and was discharged on Dec. 14, 1918. He was a member of American Legion, Veterans of World War I and Ottumwa Lodge 16 A.F. & A.M.

Survivors include one son, Phillip of Anaheim, Calif.; four grandchildren and two sisters, Mrs. Eva McLain of Burlington and Mrs. Hilda Swanson of Ottumwa. He was preceded in death by one brother.

The casket will be returned to Johnson Funeral Chapel for completion of arrangements.
