You go through many stages in life and the saddest is loosing your parents. My father passed away Jan. 15, 1951, at the age of 51 and my mother Nov. 17, 1985 at the age of 85. I cherish the good times spent with them and also with my many Aunts, Uncles, and Cousins.

We are members of the United Church of Avoca. Burl is past President of Avoca Business and Professional, past Commander of the American Legion Post, served on Fair Board two terms, member of Mt. Nebo Lodge, Abu Beker Shrine of Sioux City, and a member of Harlan T Patrol. I belonged to Rainbow and later Eastern Star till the Chapter closed. Interests besides our children and grandchildren are camping, traveling, fishing, flea markets, country music, sports, cards and politics. I enjoy crafts, seweing and needlework.
