

- (7) The director of the state hygienic laboratory or the director's designee.
- c. The council shall advise and assist the department in doing all of the following:
- (1) The development, review, and revision of the department's rules to implement this section.
  - (2) The development, updating, and revision of the examination for well contractor certification.
  - (3) The establishment, review, and revision of the continuing education requirements for certification.
  - (4) The production and publication of the consumer information pamphlet.
- d. The council shall meet as often as necessary to perform the council's duties. The department shall provide the council with staff assistance.

Sec. 4. Section 455B.190A, subsection 4, Code 2001, is amended to read as follows:

4. The department shall develop, in consultation with the well contractors' council, a consumer information pamphlet regarding well construction, well maintenance, well plugging, pump services, and Iowa groundwater laws. The department and the council shall review and revise the consumer information pamphlet as necessary. The consumer information pamphlet shall be supplied to well contractors, at cost, and well contractors shall supply one copy at no cost to potential customers prior to initiation of well services.

Sec. 5. Section 455B.190A, Code 2001, is amended by adding the following new subsection:

NEW SUBSECTION. 7. A well contractor who is engaged in performing pump services on or prior to June 30, 2004, and who registers as a pump installer with the department by June 30, 2004, shall be deemed to have met the certification requirements of this section without examination. Beginning July 1, 2004, a pump installer seeking an initial well contractor certification shall meet the requirements for certification established in this section.

Sec. 6. NOTIFICATION. The department shall make reasonable efforts to provide notice to persons engaged in performing pump services on or prior to June 30, 2004, that such persons shall have until June 30, 2004, to register with the department and thereby become certified without examination.

CHAPTER 1078

CITY PLANNING AND ZONING COMMISSIONS — EXTENDED ZONING JURISDICTION — MEMBERSHIP

H.F. 2135

AN ACT relating to the membership of the planning and zoning commission in certain cities.

Be It Enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Iowa:

Section 1. Section 414.23, unnumbered paragraph 2, Code 2001, is amended to read as follows:

A municipality, during the time its zoning jurisdiction is extended under this section, shall increase the size of its planning and zoning commission and its board of adjustment each by two members. The planning and zoning commission shall include a member of the board of supervisors of the affected county and a resident of the area outside the city limits over which the zoning jurisdiction is extended. The additional members of the board of adjustment shall be residents of the area outside the city limits over which the zoning jurisdiction is extended. They The county supervisor and the residents shall be appointed by the board of supervisors of the county in which such extended area is located and for the same terms of office and have the same rights, privileges, and duties as other members of each of said the bodies. However, if the extended zoning jurisdiction of a municipality extends into an adjacent county without a county zoning ordinance, the boards of supervisors of the affected counties, jointly, shall appoint one of their members to the planning and zoning commission.

Sec. 2. TRANSITION. If, on the effective date of this Act, a vacancy does not exist in one of the two seats on the planning and zoning commission, represented by residents of the area outside the city limits pursuant to section 414.23, the incumbents may serve their unexpired terms. Thereafter, one of the two additional members of the planning and zoning commission of a city extending its zoning jurisdiction shall be a member of the board of supervisors of the affected county pursuant to section 1 of this Act.
