

at a time for noncompliance, not to exceed the number of days paid. This standard shall not be applied to a highly structured juvenile group care program.

c. Expanding the set of qualifications accepted for rehabilitative treatment services staff positions.

d. Utilizing a weekly results summary for documentation of the group care requirement for daily provision of skills development.

3. Subject to the implementation conditions in subsection 1, the department shall adopt rules to take effect on or before December 31, 2003, or within sixty days after receiving the federal center's approval, whichever is later, to implement all of the following:

a. Eliminating the care plan requirements regarding licensing and treatment plan review; accepting a change in the treatment plan in lieu of requiring the plan to be rewritten; and permitting the provider to determine the author of the treatment plan.

b. Revising and combining provider requirements involving licensing, contracting, and certification so that duplicative regulatory requirements are eliminated or minimized while the department maintains its quality assurance role to an appropriate degree. The requirements addressed shall include but are not limited to those involving documentation in records, and treatment plan provisions involving reviews, changes, and authors.

4. The department of human services may adopt administrative rules under section 17A.4, subsection 2, and section 17A.5, subsection 2, paragraph "b", to implement this section and the rules shall become effective immediately upon filing, unless the effective date is delayed by the administrative rules review committee, notwithstanding section 17A.4, subsection 5, and section 17A.8, subsection 9, or a later effective date is specified in the rules. Any rules adopted in accordance with this section shall not take effect before the administrative rules review committee reviews the rules. Any rules adopted in accordance with this section shall also be published as notice of intended action as provided in section 17A.4.

Sec. 2. EFFECTIVE DATE. This Act, being deemed of immediate importance, takes effect upon enactment.
