CHAPTER 21

ADVISORY COMMISSION ON INTERGOVERNMENTAL RELATIONS

S.F. 92

AN ACT to create an advisory commission on intergovernmental relations, specify its membership, and enumerate its powers and duties.

Be It Enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Iowa:

Section 1. NEW SECTION. 28C.1 FINDINGS AND OBJECTIVES.

The general assembly finds that there is a need for an intergovernmental body to study and report on the following:

1. Current pattern of local governmental structure.
2. Powers and functions of local governments, including their fiscal powers.
3. Existing, necessary, and desirable relationships among local governments and the state.
4. Necessary and desirable allocation of state and local fiscal resources.
5. Necessary and desirable roles of the state as the creator of local governmental systems.
6. Special problems in interstate areas facing their general local governments, interstate regional units, and areawide bodies, the studies, where possible, to be conducted in conjunction with studies of commissions on intergovernmental relations of other states.

Sec. 2. NEW SECTION. 28C.2 COMMISSION CREATED — MEMBERSHIP.

1. An Iowa advisory commission on intergovernmental relations is created.
2. The membership of the commission shall be:
 - a. Four elected or appointed state officers, four elected or appointed county officers, four elected or appointed city officers, four elected or appointed officers of school corporations, and one member or staff member of a regional council of governments established under chapter 28I,* appointed by the governor.
 - b. Two state senators appointed by the majority leader of the senate.
 - c. Two state representatives appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives.
3. In making all appointments, consideration shall be given to gender, race or ethnic representation, population and demographic factors, and representation of different geographic regions. All appointments shall comply with sections 69.16 and 69.16A.
4. The initial chairperson of the commission shall be designated by the governor from among the commission members for a term of one year. Subsequent chairpersons shall be elected by the commission from among its membership for a term of one year. A vice chairperson may be elected by the commission from among its membership for a one-year term. In case of the absence or disability of the chairperson and vice chairperson, the members of the commission shall elect a temporary chairperson by a majority vote of those members who are present and voting.
5. The members shall be appointed to two-year staggered terms and the terms shall commence on February 1 of the year of appointment. If a vacancy occurs, a successor shall be appointed to serve the unexpired term. If a member ceases to be an officer or employee of the governmental unit or agency which qualifies the person for membership on the commission, a vacancy exists and a successor shall be appointed in the same manner and subject to the same qualifications as the original appointment to serve the unexpired term.
