

Iowa Senate Democratic Policy Analyst

The Iowa Senate's Democratic Staff is seeking a creative, energetic person to provide policy and budget analysis for Democratic State Senators.

Must have excellent political, writing, verbal, listening and people skills, and be able to interact with constituents, elected officials, executive branch, and others in the Capitol. Must be able to meet strict daily deadlines; perform in a high-pressure, team-oriented political environment; and analyze budgets and complex legislation.

Bachelor's degree is required and a law degree is preferred. Must have interest in staffing the Judiciary Committee (which includes legislation dealing with criminal and public safety issues), the Justice System Appropriations Subcommittee (which includes funding for public safety and corrections), and the Administrative Rules Review Committee (which oversees executive branch agency rule making).

Applicants should submit a resume, cover letter, and writing sample online at <https://www.legis.iowa.gov/careers>. Priority consideration will be given to applications received by August 31, 2021.
