

Legislative Research Analyst – Iowa House of Representatives, Republican Caucus Staff

Provides support for Republican legislators. Research and analyze policy/constituent issues and determines political, social and fiscal significance of data along with current and potential policies. Knowledge of legislative process.

Excellent written and oral presentation skills. Bachelor's degree required. Political experience preferred. Communications experience preferred. Law degree/Master's degree preferred.

Full time year-round with state benefit package.

Resume and cover letter must be postmarked or emailed by November 25, 2022. Start date as soon as possible. Send to Jeff Mitchell, Iowa House of Representatives, State Capitol, Des Moines IA 50319 or email to Jeff.Mitchell@legis.iowa.gov.

The House of Representatives is an equal opportunity employer.