

103A.8D Energy benchmarking requirements.

For purposes of this section, “energy benchmarking” means requiring a decrease in the average energy use of a property or requiring the average energy use of a property to be less than the average energy use of a similarly situated property. The commissioner shall not require energy benchmarking requirements for a private property.

2023 Acts, ch 147, §1