

2C.12 Complaints investigated.

The citizens' aide may receive a complaint from any source concerning an administrative action. The citizens' aide shall conduct a suitable investigation into the administrative actions complained of unless the citizens' aide finds substantiating facts that:

1. The complainant has available another remedy or channel of complaint which the complainant could reasonably be expected to use.
2. The grievance pertains to a matter outside the citizens' aide power.
3. The complainant has no substantive or procedural interest which is directly affected by the matter complained about.
4. The complaint is trivial, frivolous, vexatious, or not made in good faith.
5. Other complaints are more worthy of attention.
6. The citizens' aide resources are insufficient for adequate investigation.
7. The complaint has been delayed too long to justify present examination of its merit.

The citizens' aide may decline to investigate a complaint, but shall not be prohibited from inquiring into the matter complained about or into related problems at some future time.
