

327I.16 Limitation of liability.

The members of the board and persons acting in the board's behalf, while acting within the scope of their employment or agency, shall be employees of the state within the meaning of chapter 669 and the provisions, except section 669.11, of that chapter shall apply to such members and persons. Any awards to a claimant under chapter 669 resulting from actions involving the board or a person acting in the board's behalf shall be payable solely from funds of the authority and funds received from the state shall not be used to pay such awards.
