

487.1201 Merger.

1. Any one or more limited partnerships may merge with or into any one or more limited partnerships, limited liability companies, or corporations, provided that no limited partner of a limited partnership that is a party to the merger will, as a result of the merger, become personally liable for the liabilities or obligations of any other person or entity unless that limited partner approves the plan of merger or otherwise consents to becoming personally liable.
2. Unless otherwise provided in the partnership agreement, each domestic limited partnership which is to merge must approve the merger by approval of all general partners, and by limited partners who own more than fifty percent of the then current percentage or other interest in the profits of the domestic limited partnership owned by all of the limited partners. If more than one class or group of limited partners exists, the merger must be approved by the limited partners in each class or group who own more than fifty percent of the then current percentage or other interest in the profits of the domestic limited partnership owned by all of the limited partners of such class or group.
3. In connection with a merger under this section, rights or securities of, or interests in, a limited partnership, limited liability company, or corporation which is a constituent party to the merger may be exchanged for or converted into cash, property, rights, or securities of, or interest in, a limited partnership, limited liability company, or corporation which is the surviving entity or, in addition to or in lieu of such cash, property, rights, securities, or interests, may be exchanged for or converted into cash, property, rights, or securities of, or interest in, a limited partnership, limited liability company, or corporation other than the surviving entity.
