

490A.1201 Merger.

Any one or more limited liability companies may merge with or into any one or more limited liability companies, limited partnerships, or corporations, provided that no member of a limited liability company that is a party to the merger will, as a result of the merger, become personally liable for the liabilities or obligations of any other person or entity unless that member approves the plan of merger or otherwise consents to becoming personally liable.

92 Acts, ch 1151, § 62