

490A.307 Classes and voting.

1. An operating agreement may provide for classes or groups of members and the relative rights, powers, and duties of such members, and may provide for the future creation of additional classes or groups of members having such relative rights, powers, and duties as may from time to time be established, including rights, powers, and duties senior to existing classes and groups of members. An operating agreement may provide for taking action, including the amendment of the operating agreement, without the vote or approval of any member or class or group of members, including an action to create a class or group of membership interests that was not previously outstanding. An operating agreement may provide that any member or class or group of members has no voting rights.

2. An operating agreement may grant to all or certain identified members or a specified class or group of the members the right to vote separately or with all or any class or group of members or managers on any matter. Voting by members may be on a per capita, number, financial interest, class, group, or any other basis.

3. An operating agreement which grants a right to vote may set forth provisions relating to notice of the time, place, or purpose of any meeting at which any matter is to be voted on by any members, waiver of any notice, action by consent without meeting, the establishment of a record date, quorum requirements, voting in person or by proxy, or any other matter with respect to the exercise of any such right to vote.
