

533.49B Adverse claims to property in safe deposit and safekeeping.

1. A credit union shall not be required, in the absence of a court order or indemnity required by this section, to recognize any claim to, or claim of authority to exercise control over, property held in safe deposit or property held for safekeeping pursuant to section 533.49D made by a person or persons other than the following:

a. The member in whose name the property is held by the credit union.

b. An individual or group of individuals who are authorized to have access to the safe deposit box, or to the property held for safekeeping, pursuant to a certified corporate resolution or other written arrangement with the member, currently on file with the credit union, which has not been revoked by valid corporate action in the case of a corporation, or by a valid agreement or other valid action appropriate for the form of legal organization of any other member, of which the credit union has received notice and which is not the subject of a dispute known to the credit union as to its original validity. The safe deposit and safekeeping account records of a credit union shall be presumptive evidence as to the identity of the member on whose behalf the property is held.

2. To require a credit union to recognize an adverse claim to, or adverse claim of authority to control, property held in safe deposit or for safekeeping, whoever makes the claim must do either of the following:

a. Obtain and serve on the credit union an appropriate court order or judicial process directed to the credit union, restraining any action with respect to the property until further order of the court or instructing the credit union to deliver the property, in whole or in part, as indicated in the order or process.

b. Deliver to the credit union a bond, in form and amount with sureties satisfactory to the credit union, indemnifying the credit union against any liability, loss, or expense which the credit union might incur because of its refusal to deliver the property to any person described in subsection 1, paragraph "a" or "b".
