

633.28 Docketing trust proceedings.

When a trust is created by a will, the administration thereof shall be treated as a separate proceeding, with a separate docket number, from the date of the order of appointment or confirmation of the original trustee, unless otherwise ordered by the court. When the clerk docket a trust proceedings under this section, the clerk shall place and keep in such file a true copy of the will creating such trust.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, § 633.28]