

156.8A Student practicum.

The board, by rule, shall provide for practicums in mortuary science for students available through any school accredited by the American board of funeral service education and shall regulate the registration, training, and fees for such practicums.

2000 Acts, ch 1140, §42