

231D.3 Certification required.

1. A person or governmental unit acting severally or jointly with any other person or governmental unit shall not establish or operate an adult day services program and shall not represent an adult day services program to the public as certified unless and until the program is certified pursuant to this chapter. If an adult day services program is voluntarily accredited by a recognized accrediting entity with specific adult day services standards, the department of inspections and appeals shall accept voluntary accreditation as the basis for certification by the department. The owner or manager of a certified adult day services program shall comply with the rules adopted by the department for an adult day services program.
2. An adult day services program may provide any type of adult day services for which the program is certified. An adult day services program shall provide services and supervision commensurate with the needs of the participants. An adult day services program shall not provide services to individuals requiring a level or type of services for which the program is not certified and services provided shall not exceed the level or type of services for which the program is certified.
3. An adult day services program that has been certified by the department of inspections and appeals shall not alter the program, operation, or adult day services for which the program is certified in a manner that affects continuing certification without prior approval of the department of inspections and appeals. The department of inspections and appeals shall specify, by rule, alterations that are subject to prior approval.
4. A department, agency, or officer of this state or of any governmental unit shall not pay or approve for payment from public funds any amount to an adult day services program for an actual or prospective participant, unless the program holds a current certificate issued by the department of inspections and appeals and meets all current requirements for certification.
5. The department shall adopt rules regarding the conducting or operating of another business or activity in the distinct part of the physical structure in which the adult day services program is provided, if the business or activity serves persons who are not participants. The rules shall be developed in consultation with the department of inspections and appeals and affected industry, professional, and consumer groups.
6. The department of elder affairs and the department of inspections and appeals shall conduct joint training sessions for personnel responsible for conducting monitoring evaluations and complaint investigations of adult day services programs.
7. Certification of an adult day services program shall be for two years unless revoked for good cause by the department of inspections and appeals.
