

405.1 Housing development tax status limitation.

1. The board of supervisors of a county with a population of less than twenty thousand may adopt an ordinance providing that property acquired and subdivided for development of housing shall continue to be assessed for taxation in the manner that it was prior to the acquisition for housing. Each lot shall continue to be taxed in the manner it was prior to its acquisition for housing until the lot is sold for construction or occupancy of housing or five years from the date of subdivision, whichever is shorter. Upon the sale or the expiration of the five-year period, the property shall be assessed for taxation as residential or commercial multifamily property, whichever is applicable.

2. The board of supervisors of a county with a population of twenty thousand or more may adopt an ordinance providing that property acquired and subdivided for development of housing shall continue to be assessed for taxation in the manner that it was prior to the acquisition for housing. Each lot shall continue to be taxed in the manner it was prior to its acquisition for housing until the lot is sold for construction or occupancy of housing or three years from the date of subdivision, whichever is shorter. Upon the sale or the expiration of the three-year period, the property shall be assessed for taxation as residential or commercial multifamily property, whichever is applicable.
