

633.317 Where will is filed after letters of administration have been granted.

If, after letters of administration have been granted, a will of the decedent is admitted to probate, such letters of administration are thereby revoked, and the person to whom such letters were issued shall promptly file a final report and make an accounting to the court.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, § 633.317]