

811.2A Pretrial release.

A person, who has been released under a plan of pretrial release or on the person's own recognizance and who is subsequently arrested for a new criminal offense while under the plan of pretrial release or released on the person's own recognizance, shall not be eligible for another release pursuant to pretrial release guidelines or released on the person's own recognizance, if all of the following apply:

1. The arrest for the new criminal offense is based on a set of facts or an event that is different than involved in the earlier arrest.
2. The new criminal offense is classified as greater than a serious misdemeanor.

However, a person may be admitted to bail if eligible pursuant to section 811.1.
