

8A.103 Department purpose mission.

The department is created for the purpose of managing and coordinating the major resources of state government including the human, financial, physical, and information resources of state government.

The mission of the department is to implement a world-class, customer-focused organization that provides a complement of valued products and services to the internal customers of state government.

2003 Acts, ch 145, §3