

8A.324 Disposal of personal property.

The director may dispose of personal property of the state under the director's control by any of the following means:

1. The director may dispose of unfit or unnecessary personal property by sale. Proceeds from the sale of personal property shall be deposited in the general fund of the state.
2. If the director concludes that the personal property has little or no value, the director may enter into an agreement with a not-for-profit organization or governmental agency to dispose of the personal property. The not-for-profit organization or governmental agency may charge the state agency in control of the property with the cost of removing and transporting the property. Title to the personal property shall transfer when the personal property is in the possession of the not-for-profit organization or governmental agency. If a governmental agency adds value to the property transferred to it and sells it, the proceeds from the sale shall be deposited with the governmental agency and not in the general fund of the state.

A not-for-profit organization or governmental agency that enters into an agreement with the director pursuant to this subsection may sell or otherwise transfer the personal property received from the department to any person that the department would be able to sell or otherwise transfer such property to under this chapter, including, but not limited to, the general public. The authority granted to sell or otherwise transfer personal property pursuant to this paragraph supersedes any other restrictions applicable to the not-for-profit organization or governmental entity, but only for purposes of the personal property received from the department.

3. The director may dispose of presses, printing equipment, printing supplies, and other machinery or equipment used in the printing operation.
