

220A.8 Statistical information.

For purposes of research, study, and public information, public or private agencies may receive from the service comprehensive statistical information which may be disseminated to the public. Such information shall not use names of individual persons nor be so specific as to make possible the identification of individual persons.

[C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, § 220A.8]