

321.210B Installment agreement.

1. If a person's fine, penalty, surcharge, or court cost is deemed delinquent as provided in section 602.8107, subsection 3, and the person's driver's license has been suspended pursuant to section 321.210A, the person may execute an installment agreement with the county attorney or the county attorney's designee to pay the delinquent amount and the fee assessed in subsection 7 in installments. Prior to execution of the installment agreement, the person shall provide the county attorney or the county attorney's designee with a financial statement in order for the parties to the agreement to determine the amount of the installment payments.
2. A person shall execute an installment agreement in the county where the fine, penalty, surcharge, or court cost was imposed. If the county where the fine, penalty, surcharge, or court cost was imposed does not have an installment agreement program, the person shall execute an installment agreement in the person's county of residence. If the county of residence does not have an installment agreement program, the person may execute an installment agreement with any county attorney or county attorney's designee.
3. The county attorney or the county attorney's designee shall file the installment agreement with the clerk of the district court in the county where the fine, penalty, surcharge, or court cost was imposed, within five days of execution of the agreement.
4. Upon receipt of an executed installment agreement and after the first installment payment, the clerk of the district court shall report the receipt of the executed installment agreement to the department of transportation.
5. Upon receipt of the report from the clerk of the district court and payment of the reinstatement fee as provided in section 321.191, the department shall immediately reinstate the driver's license of the person unless the driver's license of the person is otherwise suspended, revoked, denied, or barred under another provision of law.
6. If a driver's license is reinstated upon receipt of a report of an executed installment agreement the driver shall provide proof of financial responsibility pursuant to section 321A.17, if otherwise required by law.
7. The civil penalty, if assessed pursuant to section 321.218A, shall be added to the amount owing under the installment agreement. The clerk of the district court shall transmit to the department, from the first moneys collected, an amount equal to the amount of any civil penalty assessed and added to the installment agreement. The department shall transmit the money received from the clerk of the district court pursuant to this subsection to the treasurer of state for deposit in the juvenile detention home fund created in section 232.142.
8. Upon determination by the county attorney or the county attorney's designee that the person is in default, the county attorney or the county attorney's designee shall notify the clerk of the district court.
9. The clerk of the district court, upon receipt of a notification of a default from the county attorney or the county attorney's designee, shall report the default to the department of transportation.
10. Upon receipt of a report of a default from the clerk of the district court, the department shall suspend the driver's license of a person as provided in section 321.210A. For purposes of suspension and reinstatement of the driver's license of a person in default, the suspension and any subsequent reinstatement shall be considered a suspension pursuant to section 321.210A.
11. If a new fine, penalty, surcharge, or court cost is imposed on a person after the person has executed an installment agreement with the county attorney or the county attorney's designee, and the new fine, penalty, surcharge, or court cost is deemed delinquent as provided in section 602.8107, subsection 3, and the person's driver's license has been suspended pursuant to section 321.210A, the person may enter into a second installment agreement with the county attorney or county attorney's designee to pay the delinquent amount and the fee, if assessed, in subsection 7 in installments.

12. If an installment agreement is in default, the fine, penalty, surcharge, or court cost covered under the agreement shall not become part of any new installment agreement.

13. A person is eligible to enter into five installment agreements in the person's lifetime.

14. Except for the civil penalty if assessed and collected pursuant to subsection 7, any amount collected under the installment agreement shall be distributed as provided in section 602.8107, subsection 4.
