

514G.6 Limitations on associations.

1. Prior to advertising, marketing, or offering a policy within this state, an association or a trust or the trustee of a fund established, created, or maintained for the benefit of members of one or more associations, or the insurer of the association or associations, shall file evidence with the commissioner that the association has at the outset a minimum of one hundred persons and has been organized and maintained in good faith for purposes other than that of obtaining insurance; has been in active existence for at least one year; and has a constitution and bylaws which provide all of the following:

- a.* The association must hold regular meetings not less than annually to further the purposes of the members.
- b.* Except for credit unions, the association must collect dues or solicit contributions from members.
- c.* The members must have voting privileges and representation on the governing board and committees.

2. Thirty days after such filing the association or associations will be deemed to satisfy such organizational requirements, unless the commissioner makes a finding that the association or associations do not satisfy those organizational requirements.

87 Acts, ch 131, §6