

149.7 Temporary certificate.

1. The board may issue a temporary certificate authorizing the licensee named in the certificate to practice podiatry if, in the opinion of the board, a need exists and the person possesses the qualifications prescribed by the board for the certificate, which shall be substantially equivalent to those required for regular licensure under this chapter. The board shall determine in each instance the applicant's eligibility for the certificate, whether or not an examination shall be given, and the type of examination. The requirements of the law pertaining to regular permanent licensure shall not be mandatory for this temporary certificate except as specifically designated by the board. The granting of a temporary certificate does not in any way indicate that the person licensed is necessarily eligible for regular licensure, and the board is not obligated to license the person.

2. The temporary certificate shall be issued for one year and may be renewed, but a person shall not be entitled to practice podiatry in excess of three years while holding a temporary certificate. The fee for this certificate shall be set by the board, and if extended beyond one year, a renewal fee per year shall be set by the board. The fees shall be based on the administrative costs of issuing and renewing the certificates.
