

490A.123 Correcting filed documents.

1. A domestic or foreign limited liability company may correct a document filed by the secretary of state if the document satisfies one or both of the following requirements:

- a. Contains an incorrect statement.
- b. Was defectively executed, attested, sealed, verified, or acknowledged.

2. A document is corrected by complying with both of the following:

- a. By preparing articles of correction that satisfy all of the following requirements:

- (1) Describe the document, including its filing date, or attach a copy of it to the articles.
- (2) Specify the incorrect statement and the reason it is incorrect or the manner in which the execution was defective.

- (3) Correct the incorrect statement or defective execution.

- b. By delivering the articles to the secretary of state for filing.

3. Articles of correction are effective on the effective date of the document they correct except as to persons relying on the uncorrected document and adversely affected by the correction. As to those persons, articles of correction are effective when filed.
