

490A.1323 Appeal from denial of reinstatement.

1. If the secretary of state denies a limited liability company's application for reinstatement following administrative dissolution pursuant to section 490A.1321, the secretary of state shall serve the limited liability company under section 490A.504 with a written notice that explains the reason or reasons for denial.

2. The limited liability company may appeal the denial of reinstatement to the district court within thirty days after service of the notice of denial is perfected. The limited liability company appeals by petitioning the court to set aside the dissolution and attaching to the petition copies of the secretary of state's certificate of dissolution, the limited liability company's application for reinstatement, and the secretary of state's notice of denial.

3. The court may summarily order the secretary of state to reinstate the dissolved limited liability company or may take other action the court considers appropriate.

4. The court's final decision may be appealed as in other civil proceedings.
