

490A.1408 Consequences of transacting business without authority.

1. A foreign limited liability company transacting business in this state without a certificate of authority shall not maintain a proceeding in any court in this state until it obtains a certificate of authority.

2. The successor to a foreign limited liability company that transacted business in this state without a certificate of authority and the assignee of a cause of action arising out of that business shall not maintain a proceeding based on that cause of action in any court in this state until the foreign limited liability company or its successor obtains a certificate of authority.

3. A court may stay a proceeding commenced by a foreign limited liability company, its successor, or assignee until it determines whether the foreign limited liability company or its successor or assignee requires a certificate of authority. If it so determines, the court may further stay the proceeding until the foreign limited liability company or its successor or assignee obtains the certificate.

4. A foreign limited liability company is liable for a civil penalty not to exceed a total of one thousand dollars if it transacts business in this state without a certificate of authority. The attorney general may collect penalties due under this subsection.

5. Notwithstanding subsections 1 and 2, the failure of a foreign limited liability company to obtain a certificate of authority does not impair the validity of its official acts or prevent it from defending any proceeding in this state.
