

135K.1 Definitions.

As used in this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires:

1. “Approved course” means a course covering the testing and repair of backflow prevention assemblies which has been approved by the department.
  2. “Backflow prevention assembly” means a device or means to prevent backflow into the potable water system.
  3. “Department” means the Iowa department of public health.
  4. “Registered backflow prevention assembly tester” means a person who has successfully completed an approved course and has registered with the department.
- 92 Acts, ch 1204, §1