

99G.32 Authority legal representation.

The authority shall retain the services of legal counsel to advise the authority and the board and to provide representation in legal proceedings. The authority may retain the attorney general or a full-time assistant attorney general in that capacity and provide reimbursement for the cost of advising and representing the board and the authority.

2003 Acts, ch 178, §85, 121; 2003 Acts, ch 179, §142