

123.130 Authority under class “A”, class “AA”, special class “A”, and special class “AA” permits.

1. Any person holding a class “A” permit issued by the division shall be authorized to manufacture and sell, or sell at wholesale, beer for consumption off the premises, such sales within the state to be made only to persons holding subsisting class “A”, “B”, or “C” permits, or liquor control licenses issued in accordance with the provisions of this chapter. A class “A”, class “AA”, or special class “AA” permit does not grant authority to manufacture wine as defined in section 123.3, subsection 47.

2. All class “A” premises shall be located within the state. All beer received by the holder of a class “A” permit from the holder of a certificate of compliance before being resold must first come to rest on the premises licensed by the class “A” permit holder, must be inventoried, and is subject to the barrel tax when resold as provided in section 123.136. A class “A” permittee shall not store beer overnight except on premises licensed under a class “A” permit.

3. A person who holds a special class “A” permit for the same location at which the person holds a class “C” liquor control license or class “B” beer permit may manufacture and sell beer to be consumed on the premises and may sell beer to a class “A” permittee for resale purposes.
